Halloween and Other Festivals of Death and Life Jack Santino,1994 Jack Santino has put together the first collection of essays to examine the evolution of Halloween from its Celtic origins through its adaptation into modern culture Using a wide variety of perspectives and approaches the thirteen essayists examine customs communities and material culture to reveal how Halloween has manifested itself

throughout all aspects of our society to become not just a marginal survivor of a dying tradition but a thriving contemporary post industrial festival Its steadily increasing popularity despite overcommercialization and criticism is attributed to its powerful symbolism that employs both pre Christian images and concepts from popular culture to appeal to groups of all ages orientations and backgrounds

Representing Magic in Modern Ireland Andrew Sneddon,2022-05-19 This Element argues that Ireland did not experience a disenchanting modernity nor a decline in magic It suggests that beliefs practices and traditions concerning witchcraft and magic developed and adapted to modernity to retain cultural currency until the end of the twentieth century This analysis provides the backdrop for the first systematic exploration of how historic Irish trials of witches and cunning folk were represented by historians antiquarians journalists dramatists poets and novelists in Ireland between the late eighteenth and late twentieth century It is demonstrated that this work created an accepted narrative of Irish witchcraft and magic which glossed over ignored or obscured the depth of belief in witchcraft both in the past and in contemporary society Collectively their work gendered Irish witchcraft created a myth of a disenchanting modern Ireland and reinforced competing views of Irishness and Irish identity These long held stereotypes were only challenged in the late twentieth century
