Encyclopedia of Apocalyptic Literature Valerie P. Zimbaro,1996 This text which is by no means inclusive of all of the world s apocalyptic writings is intended both as an introduction to this timely literary genre as well as a tribute to the world s major authors whose prose and poetry reflect their respective hopes dreams and fears for the world s last days Although the book is intended to address apocalyptic literature across cultures there is a significant dearth of material related to works by writers from Eastern cultures This omission is an obvious one inasmuch as the concept of an apocalypse or a singular cataclysmic ending is essentially antithetical to most cyclical Eastern philosophies In an attempt to analyze such apocalyptic themes of either non Western primitive or pre literate cultures a list of entries pertaining to significant apocalyptic myths legends and scriptures has been provided in appendix D
