The Heart of Compassion Dilgo Khyentse, 2007-05-29 A Tibetan Buddhist master shares his commentary on Santideva's Way of the Bodhisattva illuminating the path to enlightenment and the meaning of true compassion. What would be the practical implications of caring more about others than about yourself? This is the radical theme of this extraordinary set of instructions, a training manual composed in the fourteenth century by the Buddhist hermit Ngulchu Thogme, here explained in detail by one of the great Tibetan Buddhist masters of the twentieth century, Dilgo Khyentse. In the Mahayana tradition, those who have the courage to undertake the profound change of attitude required to develop true compassion are called bodhisattvas. Their great resolve to consider others' needs as paramount and thus to attain enlightenment for the sake of all living creatures carries them beyond the limits imposed by the illusions of I and mine, culminating in the direct realization of reality transcending dualistic notions of self and other. This classic text presents ways that we can work with our own hearts and minds, starting wherever we find ourselves now, to unravel our small-minded preoccupations and discover our own potential for compassion, love, and wisdom. Many generations of Buddhist practitioners have been inspired by these teachings, and the great masters of all traditions have written numerous commentaries. Dilgo Khyentse's commentary is probably his most extensive recorded teaching on Mahayana practice. Macmillan's Magazine, 1902 Philosophy of the Unconscious: Metaphysics of the unconscious Eduard von Hartmann, 1893 V 1 The class of books to which the Philosophy of the Unconscious belongs is all but unrepresented in our literature, but the absence of similar home productions can no longer be held to imply either an inability to comprehend their scope or an indifference to their results. To what shall we attribute the welcome accorded of late to certain reproductions and elucidations of the master works of modern Transcendentalism, if not to the awakening of a long-repressed desire to re-examine the foundations of a spiritual fabric for whose stability an instinctive confidence alone made answer? To many two attitudes of mind have become insupportable: that of total unconcern about fundamental truth and that of unthinking acquiescence in the admission of merely juxtaposed and uncommunicating spheres of positive knowledge and impenetrable nescience.
