Korea Travel Planner's Guide, 2002 Encyclopedia of Consumption and Waste Carl A. Zimring, William L. Rathje, Consulting Editor, 2012-02-27 Archaeologists and anthropologists have long studied artifacts of refuse from the distant past as a portal into ancient civilizations but examining what we throw away today tells a story in real time and becomes an important and useful tool for academic study Trash is studied by behavioral scientists who use data compiled from the exploration of dumpsters to better understand our modern society and culture Why does the average American household send 470 pounds of uneaten food to the garbage can on an annual basis How do different societies around the world cope with their garbage in these troubled environmental times How does our trash give insight into our attitudes about gender class religion and art The Encyclopedia of Consumption and Waste explores the topic across multiple disciplines within the social sciences and ranges further to include business consumerism environmentalism and marketing to comprise an outstanding reference for academic and public libraries

Planning, 2003 The Art of Environmental Law Benjamin J Richardson, 2019-12-12 Environmental law has aesthetic dimensions Aesthetic values have shaped the making of environmental law and in turn such law governs many of our nature based sensory experiences Aesthetics is also integral to understanding the very fabric of environmental law in its institutions procedures and discourses The Art of Environmental Law the first book of its kind brings new insights into the importance of aesthetic issues in a variety of domains of environmental governance around the world from climate change to biodiversity conservation It also argues for aesthetics and relatedly the arts to be taken more seriously in the practice of environmental law so as to improve our emotional and ethical capacities to address the upheavals of the Anthropocene
