So Many Stars Caro De Robertis, 2025-05-13 From the acclaimed novelist a first of its kind deeply personal and moving oral history of a generation of trans and gender nonconforming elders of color from leading activists to artists to ordinary citizens who tell their own stories of breathtaking courage cultural innovations and acts of resistance So Many Stars knits together the voices of trans nonbinary genderqueer and two spirit elders of color as they share authentic intimate accounts of how they created space for themselves and their communities in the world This singular project collects the testimonies of twenty elders each a glimmering thread in a luminous tapestry preserving their words for future generations who can more fully exist in the world today because of these very trailblazers De Robertis creates a collective coming of age story based on hundreds of hours of interviews offering rare snapshots of ordinary life kids growing up navigating family issues and finding community coming out and changing how they identify over the years building movements and weathering the AIDS crisis and sharing wisdom for future generations Often narrating experiences that took place before they had the array of language that exists today to self identify beyond the gender binary this generation lived through remarkable changes in American culture shaped American culture and yet rarely takes center stage in the history books Their stories feel particularly urgent in the current political moment but also remind readers that their experiences are not new and that young trans and nonbinary people today belong to a long lineage The anecdotes in these pages are riveting joyful heartbreaking full of personality and wisdom and artfully woven together into one immersive narrative In De Robertis s words So Many Stars shares behind the scenes tales of what it meant and still means to create an authentic life against the odds

THE HUMAN BEING ... an actor having so many contradictory roles Adrian Gabriel Dumitru, We have the chance but also the duty to play lots of roles during this life time We like some of those roles and maybe even adore it but also dislike many of the things we have to do as actors on the stage of reality If i would analyse myself into an honest way i would even dare to say that i played one million roles being an angel but also many times a devil Like all the others i ve played so so contradictory roles that into the end i would not even know how to define myself So was i a good person Or was i a bad person Hmm The most ridiculous conclusion was that most probably i was a positive but also a negative character on the stage of reality I was just dominated by duality I had to accept it and also that there is no real definition for myself I was good bad neutral and Every definition could be true or false for myself And all i had to do was to accept that as part of the scenario called my life
