Kant and the Faculty of Feeling

Kelly Sorensen, Diane Williamson, 2018-03-15 Kant stated that there are three mental faculties cognition feeling and desire The faculty of feeling has received the least scholarly attention despite its importance in Kant s broader thought and this volume of new essays is the first to present multiple perspectives on a number of important questions about it Why does Kant come to believe that feeling must be described as a separate faculty What is the relationship between feeling and cognition on the one hand and desire on the other What is the nature of feeling What do the most discussed Kantian feelings such as respect and sublimity tell us about the nature of feeling for Kant And what about other important feelings that have been overlooked or mischaracterized by commentators such as enthusiasm and hope This collaborative and authoritative volume will appeal to Kant scholars historians of philosophy and those working on topics in ethics aesthetics and emotions
