Temple Maintenance:

The Building of the First Temple Peter Dubovský, 2015-11-26 What can we say about 1 Kings 6 8 that attributes the construction of the temple in its full glory to Solomon Peter Dubovsky approaches these texts from the diachronic point of view by investigating evidence gathered from the ancient Near East demonstrating that temples were often changed He analyzes biblical texts indicating that the first temple underwent some important changes This result leads to the final step of his investigation he offers a minimalist version of a chronological development of the first temple and ventures to offer a more nuanced model This conclusion on the one hand should be ultimately confronted with the results of archaeological excavation once they become available on the other hand this study can point to some nuances that only a text can preserve and no archaeologist can ever unearth

Shaping Israelite Identity through Prayers in the Book of Chronicles

Kiyong Kim, 2021-11-18 What is the post exilic Israelites destiny What should they have hoped for How could they actualize their desired community This book discusses the identity of the post exilic Israelite community by focusing on the unique rhetorical impetus in the book of Chronicles Chronicles suggests a picture of the desired future Israel Yet the Chronicler does not call for a new identity creation ex nihilo from the community but calls for the restoration of the Israelites past identity by reporting the history of Israel and Judah The restoration of their past identity can be actualized when members of the community fulfill portrayed roles and characteristics in Chronicles worshiping monotheistic believing and praying and Davidic citizenship Further recorded prayer plays a crucial role as Chronicles persuades its readers to render or exhibit those roles and characteristics Prayer invites the community members to participate so that they transform past prayers into their own prayers By doing so the prayer participants perceive portrayed roles and characteristics and change their attitude By rendering and exhibiting desired roles and characteristics they eventually hope for and actualize a better community the liturgical community

Harlot or Holy Woman? Phyllis

A. Bird, 2019-11-20 Harlot or Holy Woman presents an exhaustive study of qede ah a Hebrew word meaning consecrated woman but rendered prostitute or sacred prostitute in Bible translations Reexamining biblical and extrabiblical texts Phyllis A Bird questions how qede ah came to be associated with prostitution and offers an alternative explanation of the term one that suggests a wider participation for women as religious specialists in Israel's early cultic practice Bird's study reviews all the texts from classical antiquity cited as sources for an institution of sacred prostitution alongside a comprehensive analysis of the cuneiform texts from Mesopotamia containing the cognate qadi tu and Ugaritic texts containing the masculine cognate qd Through these texts Bird presents a portrait of women dedicated to a deity engaged in a variety of activities from cultic ritual to wet nursing and sharing a common generic name with the qede ah of ancient Israel In the final chapter she returns to biblical texts reexamining them in light of the new evidence from the ancient Near East Considering alternative models for constructing women's religious roles in ancient Israel this wholly original study offers new interpretations of key texts and raises questions about the nature of Israelite religion as practiced outside the royal cult and central sanctuary
