Staging Surrealism:

Staging Surrealism Donna M. De Salvo, Mary Ann Caws, Wexner Center for the Visual Arts, Wexner Center for the Arts, 1997 Exhibition is an exploration of the salient impulses and achievements that have allowed surrealists a continuing hold on our imaginations. Comprises key surrealist paintings, sculptures and photographs from three leading American museums and three remarkable personal collections. p 78 Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non-French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework. The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression. The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis. Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens. The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist-influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier, Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions. The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism. Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre.

Ideologies of the Real in Title Sequences, Motion Graphics and Cinema Michael Betancourt, 2019-08-13 This book explores the question of realism in motion pictures. Specifically it explores how understanding the role of realism in the history of title sequences in film can illuminate discussions raised by the advent of digital cinema. Ideologies of the Real in Title Sequences, Motion Graphics and Cinema fills a critical and theoretical void in the existing literature on motion graphics. Developed from careful analysis of André Bazin, Stanley Cavell and Gilles Deleuze's approaches to cinematic realism, this analysis uses title sequences to engage the interface between narrative and non-narrative media to consider cinematic realism in depth through highly detailed close readings of the title sequences for Bullitt 1968, Kolchak: The Night Stalker 1974, The Number 23 2007, The Kingdom 2008, Blade Runner 2049 2017 and the James Bond films. From this critique, author Michael Betancourt develops a modal approach to cinematic realism where ontology is irrelevant to indexicality. His analysis shows the continuity between historical analogue film and contemporary digital motion pictures by developing a framework for rethinking how realism shapes interpretation.

Ludics in Surrealist Theatre and Beyond Vassiliki Rapti,2016-05-13 Taking as its point of departure the complex question about whether Surrealist theatre exists this book re examines the much misunderstood artistic medium of theatre within Surrealism especially when compared to poetry and painting This study reconsiders Surrealist theatre specifically from the perspective of ludics a poetics of play and games an ideal approach to the Surrealists whose games blur the boundaries between the playful and the serious Vassiliki Rapti s aims are threefold first to demystify Andr Breton s controversial attitude toward theatre second to do justice to Surrealist theatre by highlighting the unique character that derives from its inherent element of play and finally to trace the impact of Surrealist theatre in areas far beyond its generally acknowledged influence on the Theatre of the Absurd an impact being felt even on the contemporary world stage Beginning with the Surrealists one into another game and its illustration of Breton s ludic dramatic theory Rapti then examines the traces of this kind of game in the works of a wide variety of Surrealist and Post Surrealist playwrights and stage directors from several different countries and from the 1920s to the present Roger Vitrac Antonin Artaud G nter Berghaus Nanos Valaoritis Robert Wilson and Megan Terry

On the Table Mark Robbins, Paola Antonelli, 1999. The evolution of design in America reflects regular shifts between heavily ornamented and more abstract simple forms. Economics and technology as well as style and taste have influenced these formal vocabularies. This book surveys table design and place settings. From the modern era representing such designers as Charles Eames, Gilbert Rohde, George Nelson, Robert Venturi, Maya Lin, Isamu Noguchi, Eva Ziesel, and others. With examples from both high and popular markets, this book includes a section in which artists Martin Scorsese, Tony Kushner, and Tina Barney, among others, present a memorable table of their choosing, as well as informative text by design specialists.

Staging a Cultural Paradigm Bárbara Ozieblo, Miriam López-Rodríguez, 2002. The conflict between the political and the personal, an opposition which pervades the whole of American literature, informs the essays on twentieth-century American theater gathered in this volume. Prominent theater scholars from Europe and America address the cultural paradigm created by the clash of private needs with public expectations. The difficulty of reconciling the two has led many dramatists to turn to the complexities of intertextuality in order to express their rebellions and rejections of inherited cultural values and myths. Essays on Arthur Miller, Sam Shepard, Susan Glaspell, H. M. Koutoukas, Dolores Prida, or Suzan-Lori Parks, to name but a few of the dramatists discussed here, reflect the vibrancy of American drama and the depth of the interaction of the political with the personal.
