Teaching by Heart Thomas J. DeLong, 2020-01-14 The best teachers are leaders and the best leaders are teachers Teaching by Heart summarizes the author's key insights gained from more than forty years of teaching and managing It illustrates how teachers can both lift people up and let them down It proposes that the best teachers are also leaders and the best leaders are also teachers In examining how to lead and teach renowned Harvard Business School professor Thomas J DeLong takes the reader inside his own head and heart He notes that as teachers we often focus more on our inadequacies and missteps than on our strengths and unique talents He explains why this is so by dissecting and analyzing his own experiences using himself as a case study The book's goal is to help readers learn about the intricacies of teaching and managing and to impart lessons about how teachers can create a unique teaching atmosphere To do this the author analyzes the process of creating a curriculum preparing for an eighty minute class managing the fifteen minutes before class begins and evaluating the nature of the teaching experience after the session concludes Along the way he connects specific classroom behaviors with leadership issues in organizations in teams and in personal relationships He also asks and answers some provocative questions such as What happens on multiple levels when I teach or lead with my students or professionals What am I thinking and feeling as I process what students are thinking and feeling How are my internal conversations affecting how I teach and lead How do I manage my biases including having favorite students To what extent can I use teaching methods in the arena of management Throughout Teaching by Heart DeLong discusses why empathy and authenticity matter When teachers embrace this mindset students have the opportunity to have a unique learning experience Teachers and managers will learn how to create moments of transformation for students Whether you're a university professor a student a business leader or just someone fascinated by teaching this book will instruct entertain and hopefully inspire

Teaching With Heart Judith A. Deiro, 1996-04-18 Demystifies caring by describing a set of practices that any high school teacher can use Deiro shows that it is possible to develop healthy bonds with students without becoming intimate Some of the practices may surprise you all are compellingly illustrated by case examples A must read for teacher education professionals as well as for novice and experienced teachers

Thomas J Sergiovanni Lillian Professor of Education and Administration Trinity University San Antonio Texas Teaching With Heart is a book of great clarity and wisdom I plan to recommend it widely

E Timothy Burns Author Educator and Presenter Santa Fe New Mexico An inspiring book one that reaffirms what I know I'm doing well and encourages me to keep finding ways to show respect for my students

Shellie Mueller Teacher Sunnycrest Elementary School Lake Stevens School District Washington Examines the methods that outstanding teachers use to develop healthy caring relationships with their students without turning into counselors or parents Identifies and discusses the teacher behaviors that sustain and support students while helping them learn Here you'll find case studies that illustrate how you can begin to foster caring and closeness in your school or classroom Learn to make real connections with your students to help buffer them against self-defeating behaviors common among young people. Develop these six effective strategies: Learn how to listen to their points of view; Set high standards for yourself and for your students; Encourage students to be individualistic and independent; Learn how to treat students with dignity and respect; Use discipline with humor; Make it safe for your students to learn. Deiro describes the personal and workplace resources that will encourage, sustain, and support you as you work to create caring relationships with your students. She provides a valuable framework you can use right now to begin building closer bonds in your school or classroom. If you are a classroom teacher who wants to learn to be more caring or a teacher educator or administrator who wants to teach novices or experienced staff how they can be more caring teachers, this book is the place to start. Teaching Heart to Heart: Barbara Carmody, 2024-12-19

Teaching Heart to Heart: A Book of Reflections and Encouragement for Teachers is about teaching in a way where we connect with more than just our minds; we connect with our hearts. This book aims to provide inspiration and encouragement for teachers as they navigate the expectations of their often-exhausting yet rewarding career choice. Each chapter ends with an Invitation to Reflect, which is intended to personalize the reader's journey. Teaching with Heart Jody Capehart, 2005

This valuable handbook helps teachers develop spiritual understanding to cherish the uniqueness of each child while challenging kids to grow up to be like Christ. Includes reproducible handouts, charts, and chapter questions for small group discussion. HeartShaper Resources help children of all ages discover God's love and interact with the Bible in a way that helps them connect to God, Jesus, the church, family, and others. These age-appropriate resources can enhance any children's curriculum and help reinforce Bible lessons. Heart-Deep Teaching Gary C. Newton, 2012-05-01

When teaching the Bible, what is the best theory and what are the best practices to stimulate deeper student learning? Heart-Deep Teaching was written for parents, teachers, and students of the Word who desire to apply its principles in life-transforming ways. The concept of heart-deep teaching and learning is based on a Hebrew understanding of the heart as the innermost essence of a person that involves the mind, emotions, and will. When the heart is engaged by the power of the Holy Spirit within the context of God's Word, both character and behavioral changes occur. To actively engage students' emotions, mind, will, and body in learning, a heart-deep teacher uses strategies involving interaction, drama, reflection, story-telling, wonder, movement, creativity, acting out, problem-solving, and wrestling with the principles discovered in the biblical text. By integrating accurate methods of analyzing the biblical text and current research in teaching and learning, the book attempts to help teachers understand the theoretical and practical skills to create their own lessons, adapt lessons from published curriculums, and improve their own strategies of studying and teaching the Word. Heart 2 Heart Teaching Steve Woolf, 2015-03-13

Teach from the Heart Jenell Paris, 2016-06-24

How can a teacher remain whole and happy, able to teach well for an entire semester, an entire year, and an entire career? Teach from the Heart is about finding, rediscovering, or holding on to the heart of the teaching life, which is quite literally the teacher's heart. It is an encouragement to take up teaching as more than a service to provide a profession to master or a job to perform It is an invitation to artisanry teaching as a craft that we master by working with our hands over long periods of time producing results that bear the mark of their maker Whether you re just beginning or in it for the long haul sit down with Teach from the Heart and deepen your heart for the teaching life We need not bring to class the wisdom and knowledge we gained elsewhere we can take up teaching as a spiritual practice with the classroom as a sacred space for our own formation as persons With nearly forty years experience as both student and teacher Jenell Paris s perspective is hard won but still lighthearted and enthusiastic Teachers from any context will benefit stories and examples include preschool K 12 community education and college teaching
