6 Steps to Success in Teaching with Technology Lucas Kent, 2008 A technological tidal wave has arrived at today's schools revolutionizing how teachers teach and students learn Computers cell phones digital whiteboards student response systems projectors the Internet iPods software and e mail are all available to front line teachers and students Utilizing these new tools is rewarding for educators and empowering for students If you're a teacher who wants to incorporate technology in your classroom then 6 Steps to Success in Teaching with Technology will show you how Award winning teacher Lucas Kent experienced first hand the joy and excitement of using these amazing tools with his students In his easy to follow guide Lucas lays down a path for even the most non technology inclined teacher to follow His six simple steps include Understand Why Adapt Plan Do Your Homework Implement Effectively Keep Up to Date Kent also includes helpful tips his own classroom experiences and a glossary of teaching with technology terms to help you begin this new and exciting process Let's face it our world is changing It's time to learn adapt and embrace teaching with technology Teaching with Technology Judith Haymore Sandholtz, Cathy Ringstaff, David C. Dwyer, 1997-01-01 What happens between student and teacher when computers move into the classroom This book gives us vivid case studies and eloquent teacher voices addressing teachers perennial concerns teacher learning and teacher beliefs about instructional change redefining student and teacher roles maintaining student engagement reducing teacher isolation managing the technology rich classroom and support for instructional change from school principals school districts technology trainers and colleagues Teaching with Technology Priscilla Norton, Karin M. Wiburg, 2003 The distinctive characteristic of TEACHING WITH TECHNOLOGY Second Edition is its clear correlation between theory and practice This text focuses on ways to use technology to foster learning in K 12 classrooms instead of presenting the mechanics of computer operation Norton and Wiburg's chapters are not based on computer applications they are based instead on how technology can support student acquisition of literacy content knowledge problem solving participating in communities and student utilization of information and systems of assessment Best Ideas for Teaching with Technology Justin Reich, This practical how to guide makes it easy for teachers to incorporate the latest technology in their classes Employing an informal workshop approach the book avoids technical jargon and pays special attention to the needs of teachers who are expanding the use of computers in their classrooms The authors focus on what teachers do and how they can do it better and provide a wide variety of proven tools tips and methods for enhancing these activities with technology Best Ideas for Teaching with Technology provides extensively illustrated tutorials for a wide variety of software online tools and teaching techniques It covers everything from lesson plans to time management how to show animation blogging podcasts laptop strategies and much much more In addition periodic updates to the text will be available on the authors website Managing Technology in Higher Education A. W. (Tony) Bates, Albert Sangra, 2011-05-31 Universities continue to struggle in their efforts to fully integrate information and communications technology within their activities Based on examination of current practices in technology integration at 25 universities worldwide this book argues for a radical approach to the management of technology in higher education It offers recommendations for improving governance strategic planning integration of administrative and teaching services management of digital resources and training of technology managers and administrators The book is written for anyone wanting to ensure technology is integrated as effectively and efficiently as possible Teaching Teachers to Use Technology Dee LaMont Johnson, Kulwadee Kongrith, 2006 Help teachers become more effective in the classroom Though teachers may have access to the newest technology they often avoid it because they don't understand it or know how to use it to their best advantage Teaching Teachers to Use Technology provides numerous strategies for effectively infusing technology into teacher education This timely book includes models for professional and staff development inquiry learning network based assessment and collaborating through online learning and publications to increase the quality and quantity of educators entering the workforce as classroom teachers The Millennium Project's PT3 Preparing Tomorrow's Teachers to use Technology program provided funds to spark educational projects such as the Leaders in Technology Enhanced Schools LITES project and others all to better prepare pre service and in service teachers to teach more effectively through the use of technology Teaching Teachers to Use Technology presents the latest research results and highlights case studies to illustrate the strengths and weaknesses of various projects Respected experts discuss creative strategies to provide readers with a range of perspectives and innovative ideas to meet future challenges in education The text provides several helpful tables and appendixes Topics in Teaching Teachers to Use Technology include discussions on the Millennium Project's PT3 program research results the Practicum Plus Program a model program of core course work including educational technology faculty modeling and clinical experiences the online Personal Learning Planner PLP lessons learned from a project at a small private college which prioritized the issue of educational equity knowledge gained from the LITES project at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville three major barriers to infusion of technology into the curriculum research comparing the innovation of the technology enhanced lessons and the NETS standards a case study of a project funded by PT3 program which shows how technology can be used for assessment Teaching Teachers to Use Technology is an invaluable source for educators administrators computer center directors and special service providers in the school setting Integrating Technology Into Teaching Arthur Recesso, Chandra Orrill, 2007-04-01 Developed by a highly qualified author team this new textbook is designed for an introduction to instructional technology course taken by education majors The goals of the text and its companion web site are to enable faculty to teach the fundamentals of hardware and software and more important to educate their students about how technology can be integrated into instruction Using the text and web site students learn to apply knowledge from their content methods courses and learn how to incorporate technology to promote effective instruction What sets this text apart is its teacher tested model The Technology and Learning Continuum Model TLC which bridges the gap between educational technology and instructional design In use by Recesso for more than six years the model grew out of a Preparing Tomorrow s Teachers to Use Technology PT3 grant and is being used currently in Georgia to meet the state mandated requirement that all teachers complete a technology certification program by 2006 The model however is not state specific Using the 4 color model as a guide students are able to move beyond awareness of instructional and assistive technology to advanced levels of technology integration In a structured fashion pre service or in service teachers learn how to align learning activities objectives instructional strategies technology and assessments to facilitate a progression of student learning The results are learning units and learning activities where technology is integrated not used as an add on and lesson plans that prospective or current teachers can take into the classroom and effectively use as a guide to instruction Another important feature of this program is its close alignment with the prevailing technology standards In these standards driven times showing explicitly how content ties to standards is critical
