Introduction

The extension of market ties beyond national boundaries contrasts with liberalism due to the international nature rather than the state form. Through the use of the principle, this disagreement may be handled in two methodologies: by restricting international and commercial relationships or by internationalizing political institutions. As to comprehend the study's concerns, the research will call attention to unsustainable speculations of some globalization detractors, such as multiple Balkan writers. However, entering the EU will nearly completely globalize Serbia and Croatia's economies (Takao 88). The EU is now virtually the whole globe for them, and it will be considered so after the nations join. Such anti-globalization Europeanism might be understood if democracy was vital to them as a market competition regulator and a corrector of social inequalities.

However, admission to the EU entails globalization of all national markets. As a result, an opponent of globalization in Serbia or Croatia should oppose their nation's entry into the EU. Similarly, proponents of free trade favor EU integration and are hostile to the concept of Nation states. Although it seems evident that protection must violate at least some human rights, it is remarkable that some leftist critics of globalization are also defenders of human rights across the globe (Sugow et al. 95). On the other hand, right-wing proponents of globalization frequently outline a weakness for the nation state, which can only be speculated as a method of interference with market operation. Hence

Indian Democracy's Paradoxes Prahalad Rao, 2024-03-06 We are dealing with a new political form of society whose specificity comes from the articulation between two different traditions On one side we have the liberal tradition constituted by the rule of law the defence of human rights and the respect of individual liberty on the other the democratic tradition whose main ideas are those of equal identity between governing and governed and popular sovereignty There is no necessary relation between those two distinct traditions but only a contingent historical articulation Let's not forget that while we tend today to take the link between liberalism and democracy for granted their union far from being a smooth process was the result of bitter struggles Mouffe The Democratic Paradox The Unity in Diversity is based on multi wheel and not on mono wheel system Truth has one face while the untruth has many faces Truth does not seek for any excuse while the untruth always searches for an excuse Truth cannot be divided it is the same for one and all There has been a growing paradoxical environment in the country not genuinely but due to lack of reasoning and reconciliation which are the offshoots of ego misunderstanding and confrontation Today paradoxes in our democracy are multiplying manifold Time we need to take them seriously search for solutions These paradoxes include Diversity Division Fundamental Duties Governance and Citizens Moral Values and Human Development I have analysed them in depth and endeavoured to show their patenting effects in the
