Non-prestige Television is Worth Taking a Look at Jaymen Canice Neff-Strickland,2022 MTV s Teen Wolf 2011 2017 was adapted from the 1985 film Teen Wolf which starred Michael J Fox Outside of sharing the same title having a few characters with the same names and including some sort of werewolf mythology the original film and the updated television version of Teen Wolf could not be more different In MTV s take on the werewolf tale protagonist Scott McCall played by Tyler Posey is bitten by an alpha the night before his sophomore year of high school which he learns along with his friends and family that this fateful night will change his life forever Instead of relying on tropes that some claim to have been a constant in the teen drama realm since 1990 which is an argument up for debate in itself Teen Wolf brings a level of maturity and complexity to a network that was once the home of shows like The Brothers Grunt 1994 1995 Date My Mom 2004 2006 and My Super Sweet 16 2005 2017 In this current Golden Age of Television that we are experiencing in the United States it is important to note those shows that do not have a home on cable or higher profile networks because quality can and has slipped through the cracks and we must recognize and analyze those shows before they wither away from our memory
