Tell Child Death:

What Do We Tell the Children? Joseph M. Primo, 2013-09-17 One out of seven children will lose a parent before they are 20 The statistics are sobering but they are also a call for preparedness However pastors and counselors of all types are often at a loss when dealing with a grieving child Talking to adults about death and grief is difficult it s all the more challenging to talk to children and teens The stakes are high grieving children are high risk for substance abuse promiscuity depression isolation and suicide Yet despite this most of these kids grow up to be normal or exceptional adults But their chance to become healthy adults increases with the support of a loving community Supporting grieving children requires intentionality open communication and patience Rather than avoid all conversations on death or pretend like it never happened normalizing grief and offering support requires us to be in tune with kids through dialogue as they grapple with questions of how and why When listening to children in grief we often have to embrace the mystery offer love and compassion and stick with the basics The author says We don t have to answer the why and how for them but we can assure our children that God is with us as we suffer We can do so by doing good for others and pointing out all of those moments when someone has done something good for us I believe that most of the time that s as far as we will get and that is okay How Do We Tell the Children? Dan Schaefer, Christine Lyons, 1988 A compassionate step by step guide to talking about death with children ages two through the teens How Do We Tell the Children discusses how adults can help children cope with their feelings Includes a special 16 page crisis intervention guide On the Death of a Child Celia Hindmarch, 2000 New updated edition draws on the experiences of recent traumas and developments in support services On the Death of a Child Christine Hindmarch, 2018-05-08 The death of a child whether during or following birth through illness through accident or through suicide is one of the greatest challenges families carers friends and the health and social care professionals who support them can face This book provides professionals with practical advice resources for further support and reading and much needed reassurance that whatever contact they have with the bereaved and however inadequate they may feel to the task they can make a difference With revised material and an entirely new chapter reflecting recent developments in bereavement theory the third edition of this classic text offers unique insights for professionals with varying levels of experience From theory and narrative come practical ideas on what to say what to do how to behave how to stay humble in situations where the only real experts are the bereaved themselves and how professionals can look after themselves in what can be particularly traumatic and upsetting circumstances Telling a Child about Death Edgar Newman Jackson, 1965 Oxford Textbook of Palliative Care for Children Ann Goldman, Richard Hain, Stephen Liben, 2012-05-24 The first edition of this book was the first authoritative systematic and comprehensive text to define the increasingly important and evolving specialty of paediatric palliative care It explores both the clinical aspects and the multidimensional and holistic nature of care for the dying child based on the knowledge that all human experience has a physical emotional psychological and spiritual impact The book covers ways of providing support in all of these areas both for the child families and carers recognising the importance of teamwork and taking an evidence based approach The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Care for Children is about the care of children for whom cure of their underlying disease is not possible It encompasses the physical management of symptoms such as pain and nausea as well as social issues such as accessing appropriate education emotional issues such as techniques for communication and spiritual issues such as feelings of guilt and isolation The book suggests that if we are to maintain the quality of life for a child it is essential to recognise all these dimensions and try to address them This can only be done by recognising the skills of a wide range of professionals and working together in ways that are not always intuitive to any one discipline It explores the multidimensional and holistic nature of care for the dying child Those working in paediatric palliative care recognise that all human experience has emotional psychological and spiritual impact as well as physical and this book offers the essential information needed for those involved in paediatric care to find ways of providing support in all of these areas Comprehensive in scope exhaustive in detail and definitive in authority this second edition has been thoroughly updated to cover new practices current epidemiological data and the evolving models that support the delivery of palliative medicine to children Paediatric palliative care is now developing in countries with differing health care systems and being adapted to suit individual illnesses and the varying resources and geography in different parts of the world This book is an essential resource for anyone who works with children worldwide

Death and Children Stephen Gullo, 1985 Nursing the Highly Dependent Child or Infant Michaela Dixon, Doreen Crawford, Debra Teasdale, Jan Murphy, 2009-03-16 Nursing the Highly Dependent Infant or Child is an accessible and clinical guide to the caring for the acutely ill child It provides guidance on the specific nursing skills required to care for children and infants who require a step up level of care from those on the general paediatric ward or a step down level of care on discharge from neonatal or paediatric critical care facilities The book follows a general systems approach covering themes such as respiratory care renal care and cardiac care as well as covering specialities such as neuro trauma burns and transportation of the acutely ill infant or child Other areas explored include pain and sedation monitoring and meeting the nutritional needs of the highly dependent child Each chapter provides an overview of relevant anatomy and physiology guidance on assessment and monitoring and outlines effective nursing care and management guidance of common conditions encountered in acute children's care

Pediatric Psycho-oncology Shulamith Kreitler, Myriam Weyl Ben-Arush, Andrés Martin, 2012-08-13 Like the ground breaking first edition Pediatric Psycho oncology Second edition puts the child at the centre of medical and psychological care It broadens the focus beyond treatment and cure to consider the quality of life of the child and their family Written by an international group of pediatric oncologists and psychologists psycho oncologists brought together by an expert editorial team it focuses on the real life practical aspects of children undergoing treatment for cancer This edition has been restructured and opens with a major section on Active treatment which includes chapters addressing quality of life pain psychosocial aspects of treatment and interventions art therapy and different fantasy based techniques palliative care communication and education as well as a new chapter on psychopharmacology Shorter sections then discuss survivorship and care of the dying child including a new chapter on bereavement The final section comprises new chapters on ethical considerations and on addressing the emotional needs of children whose parents have cancer as well as a case study on international collaboration An appendix provides a comprehensive overview of tools for evaluation and assessment in pediatric psychooncology This book is a highly practical resource that will be invaluable for all health care professionals looking after children and adolescents with cancer Praise for the first edition a welcome addition to the field I highly recommend it to all health care professionals involved in the treatment of childhood cancer patients Journal of the American Medical Association November 2004

How Do We Tell the Children? Dan Schaefer,2011-01-11 This classic step by step guide to talking about death separation and loss with children and teens features timely new material on dealing with trauma addressing violence in schools and helping grandparents cope as caregivers Many children s lives are touched by a serious illness within their families and some will be faced with the loss of a parent or grandparent or the death of a sibling or beloved pet How can adults help young people cope with these losses How do they explain and console in language that a child can understand Dr Daniel Schaefer working with child psychologists

Applying the Roper-Logan-Tierney Model in Practice Jane Jenkins, BA MSc SRN RNT,Jackie Solomon, MA, PGDip, SRN,Sue Whittam,Karen Holland,2008-06-03 This title is directed primarily towards health care professionals outside of the United States Applying the RLT Model in Practice has been written to enable students and their teachers in both Higher Education and clinical practice to explore the different dimensions of the model through a variety of case studies and exercises The case studies can be viewed as triggers for student problem solving skills in using the Model Many of the exercises are aimed at enabling readers to find evidence to support nursing activities The authors have incorporated an international perspective throughout the text Based on the most popular model used in general nursing care throughout the world Explicitly demonstrates how the RLT model can be used to assess plan deliver and evaluate individualised nursing care Applies the RLT model in the context of today s health services and links it to clinical governance and the multi disciplinary context of care Uses a problem solving approach with extensive use of exercises and case studies Attractive two colour design using boxes tables and summaries Fully updated throughout in line with changes in practice developments in the evidence base changes in the NHS e g modern matrons Modernisation Agency etc More material on how to apply the model in an inter disciplinary context Updated infection control section More on discharge planning More material relating to primary care
