The Aces Talk:

The German Aces Speak Colin D. Heaton, Anne-Marie Lewis, Brig. Gen. Robin Olds, USAF (Ret.), Oberleutnant Kurt Schulze, 2011-11-15

For the first time four German WWII pilots share their side of the story. Few perspectives epitomize the sheer drama and sacrifice of combat more perfectly than those of the fighter pilots of World War II. As romanticized as any soldier in history the WWII fighter pilot was viewed as larger than life a dashing soul waging war amongst the clouds. In the sixty five plus years since the Allied victory stories of these pilots heroics have never been in short supply. But what about their adversaries the highly skilled German aviators who pushed the Allies to the very brink of defeat? Of all of the Luftwaffe's fighter aces the stories of Walter Krupinski Adolf Galland Eduard Neumann and Wolfgang Falck shine particularly bright. In The German Aces Speak for the first time in any book these four prominent and influential Luftwaffe fighter pilots reminisce candidly about their service in World War II. Personally interviewed by author and military historian Colin Heaton they bring the past to life as they tell their stories about the war their battles their lives and perhaps most importantly how they felt about serving under the Nazi leadership of Hermann Goring and Adolf Hitler. From thrilling air battles to conflicts on the ground with their own commanders the aces' memories disclose a side of World War II that has gone largely unseen by the American public: the experience of the German pilot.

Black Tulip Erik Schmidt, 2020-02-29

This myth busting military biography reveals the true story of the legendary WWII German flying ace and how his story was manipulated during the Cold War. Over the course of 1,404 wartime missions Luftwaffe fighter pilot Erich Hartmann claimed a staggering 352 airborne kills. His storied career contains all the dramas you would expect: frostbitten fighter sweeps over the Eastern Front drunken forays to Hitler's Eagle's Nest a decade of imprisonment in the wretched Soviet POW camps and further military service during the Cold War. Then just as Hartmann's career was faltering he was adopted by a network of writers and commentators deeply invested in his reputation. These men, mostly Americans, published celebratory stories about Hartmann and his elite fraternity of Luftwaffe pilots. With each dogfight tale put into print Hartmann's legacy became loftier and more secure and his complicated service in support of Nazism faded away. Black Tulip digs beneath this one dimensional account of Hartmann's life revealing a man who was neither a full blown Nazi nor an impeccable knight.

The free standing radios of the middle decades of the 20th century were invitingly rotund and proudly displayed, nothing like today's skinny televisions hidden inside entertainment centers. Radios were the hub of the family's after dinner activities and children and adults gorged themselves on western adventure series like The Lone Ranger police dramas such as Calling All Cars and the varied offerings of The Cavalcade of America Shows. Often aired two or three times a week and many programs were broadcast for more than a decade comprising hundreds of episodes. This book includes more than 300 program logs, many appearing in print for the first time, drawn from newspapers, script files, in broadcast museums records from NBC, ABC and CBS and the
