The Search for Certainty Marcus Giaquinto,2023 Marcus Giaquinto tells the story of one of the great intellectual adventures of the modern era the attempt to find firm foundations for mathematics The Search Eternal Frank E. Brower,1971 The Search for Certainty Wilford W. Spradlin,Patricia B. Porterfield,1984 The Search for a Rational Faith Daniel K. Williams,2026-01-07 The Search for a Rational Faith presents a 400 year narrative history of Anglo American Protestant intellectual defenses of the Christian faith from the seventeenth century to the present It challenges popular assumptions about secularization by showing that faith and reason have long coexisted in American educational establishments and by demonstrating that the Enlightenment and Darwinian science were much more compatible with American Protestant Christianity than many assume The Search for Certainty Frank J. Swetz,2012-01-01 Self contained and authoritative this history of mathematics is suited to those with no math background Its absorbing entertaining essays focus on the era from 1800 to 2000 Contributors include Henri Poincaré Judith V Grabiner and H S M Coxeter who discuss topics ranging from logic and infinity to Fermat s Last Theorem The Search for Certainty W.W. Spradlin,P.B. Porterfield,2012-12-06 Who are we What are we How do we fit into the world Or into the universe These and other questions pertaining to ourselves and our environment are as compelling to us today as they were to our primitive ancestors Throughout our history we have developed paradigms of thought that have attempted to answer these questions each conceptual framework being particularly relevant to its age We are in the twentieth century witnessing a complete reorganization of our thinking We are now with the aid of technology able to bring together both ancient and new patterns of thought and to observe the emergence of a kaleidoscopic world view that is uniting the once dissonant theories of philosophy religion and science This book sketches an historical picture of three world views that have shaped our ideas about ourselves These conceptual formats that have so influenced us are not mutually exclusive and are present in all of us simultaneously although to varying degrees depending upon our individual biases The Search for Concreteness Darrel E. Christensen,1986-09 Presents a methodological basis for a philosophy of concrete actuality Also breaks new ground in its mediation between two varied traditions of speculative philosophy Science and Social Progress Herbert Wallace Schneider,1920 The Search for Authority in Reformation Europe Dr Elaine Fulton,Dr Helen Parish,Dr Peter Webster,2014-02-28 The problem of authority was not an invention of the Protestant Reformation but as the essays contained in this volume demonstrate its discussion in ever greater complexity was one of the ramifications if not causes of the deepening divisions within the Christian church in the sixteenth century Any optimism that the principle of sola scriptura might provide a vehicle for unity and concord in the post Reformation church was soon to be dented by a growing uncertainty and division evident even in early evangelical writing and preaching Representing a new approach to an important subject this volume of essays widens the understanding and interpretation of authority in the debates of the Reformation The fruits of original and recent research each essay builds with careful scholarship on solid historiographical foundations ensuring that the content and ultimate conclusions do much to challenge long standing assumptions about perceptions of authority in the aftermath of the Reformation Rather than dealing with individual sources of authority in isolation the volume examines the juxtapositions of and negotiations between elements of the authoritative synthesis and thereby throws new light on the nature of authority in early modern Europe as a whole This volume is thus an ideal vehicle with which to bring high quality new and significant research into the public domain for the first time whilst adding substantially to the existing corpus of Reformation scholarship The Philosophical Quarterly, 1928 The Monist Paul Carus, 1928 Vols 2 and 5 include appendices The Search for Absolute Values and the Creation of the New World, 1982 Archives of Philosophy ..., 1914

Idea and Essence in the Philosophies of Hobbes and Spinoza Albert G. A. Balz, 1918 Examines the philosophy of Hobbes and Spinoza and argues that to endow these philosophers with a psychology based upon the conception of physical existence is to misrepresent their work It both indicates the resulting misrepresentations and points out the true character of their teachings The Search for Certainty Christian P. Robert, 2010 Are You Alone Wise? Susan Schreiner, 2010-12-28 In this book Susan Schreiner analyzes the pervading questions about certitude and doubt in the terms and contexts of a wide variety of thinkers during Europe in the sixteenth century Among the texts she draws on are Montaigne's Essays the mystical writings of Teresa of Avila the diary letters and treatises of St Ignatius and the dramas of Shakespeare The result is not a book about theology but rather about the way in which the concern with certitude determined the theology polemics and literature of the age Paradigms, Thought, and Language Ivana Marková, 1982
