Moving Environments Alexa Weik von Mossner, 2014-07-15 In Moving Environments Affect Emotion Ecology and Film international scholars investigate how films portray human emotional relationships with the more than human world and how such films act upon their viewers emotions Emotion and affect are the basic mechanisms that connect us to our environment shape our knowledge and motivate our actions Contributors explore how film represents and shapes human emotion in relation to different environments and what role time place and genre play in these affective processes Individual essays resituate well researched environmental films such as An Inconvenient Truth and March of the Penguins by paying close attention to their emotionalizing strategies and bring to our attention the affective qualities of films that have so far received little attention from ecocritics such as Stan Brakhage's Dog Star Man The collection opens a new discursive space at the disciplinary intersection of film studies affect studies and a growing body of ecocritical scholarship It will be of interest not only to scholars and students working in the field of ecocriticism and the environmental humanities but for everyone with an interest in our emotional responses to film Reel Views 2 James Berardinelli, 2005 Thoroughly revised and updated for 2005 Includes a new chapter on the best special edition DVDs and a new chapter on finding hidden easter egg features
