

or a large number of small areas, if the left boundary can also be recognised visually. So it is important to be able to recognise both the point at which normal back-with-front thread Z-twist interlinking has to stop, i.e. the Z-twist Stopping Point, and the point at which back-with-front thread S-twist interlinking has to stop, i.e. the S-twist Stopping Point.

Z-TWIST STOPPING POINT

This can be recognised in three ways, the first of which has already been described. The Z-twist Stopping Point is shown in Fig. 54. The junction between the Z-twist area on the right and the S-twist area on the left is shown by the diagonal dotted line.

Fig. 54
Position of the threads and hands at the Z-twist
stopping point

Note—That for clarity in this and other diagrams in this section, the parts of each thread which form the front surface of the fabric are shown much thicker.

- (1) It is the point when the last back layer thread picked up was the right-hand of the two threads lying together behind the left fingers.
