The African Colonial State In Comparative Perspective:

The African Colonial State in Comparative Perspective Crawford Young, 1994 In this comprehensive and original study a distinguished scholar of African affairs argues that the crisis in African development can be traced directly to European colonial rule which left the continent with a singularly difficult legacy Crawford Young proposes a new conception of the state weighing the characteristics of European empires of the past including those of Holland Portugal England and Venice and distilling their common qualities He then presents a concise and wide ranging history of colonization in Africa from construction through consolidation and decolonization Young argues that several qualities combined to make the European colonial experience in Africa distinctive The high number of nations competing for power on the continent and the necessity to achieve effective occupation swiftly yet make the colonies self financing drove colonial powers toward policies of ruthless extractive action The persistent virulent racism that distanced rulers from subjects was especially central to African colonial history Young concludes by comparing the fates of former African colonies with those of their once colonized counterparts elsewhere In tracing both the overarching similarities and variations in African colonial states he makes a strong case that colonialism has played a critical role in shaping the fate of a troubled continent China into Africa Robert I.

Rotberg, 2009-10-01 Africa has long attracted China We can date their first certain involvement from the fourteenth century but East African city states may have been trading with southern China even earlier In the mid twentieth century Maoist China funded and educated sub Saharan African anticolonial liberation movements and leaders and the PRC then assisted new sub Saharan nations Africa and China are now immersed in their third and most transformative era of heavy engagement one that promises to do more for economic growth and poverty alleviation than anything attempted by Western colonialism or international aid programs Robert Rotberg and his Chinese African and other colleagues discuss this important trend and specify its likely implications Among the specific topics tackled here are China s interest in African oil military and security relations the influx and goals of Chinese aid to sub Saharan Africa human rights issues and China s overall strategy in the region China s insatiable demand for energy and raw materials responds to sub Saharan Africa s relatively abundant supplies of unprocessed metals diamonds and gold while offering a growing market for Africa s agriculture and light manufactures As this book illustrates this evolving symbiosis could be the making of Africa the poorest and most troubled continent while it further powers China s expansive economic machine Contributors include Deborah Brautigam American University Harry Broadman World Bank Stephen Brown University of Ottawa Martyn J Davies Stellenbosch University Joshua Eisenman UCLA Chin Hao Huang Stockholm International Peace Research Institute Paul Hubbard Australian Department of the Treasury Wenran Jiang University of Alberta Darren Kew University of Massachusetts Boston Henry Lee Harvard University Li Anshan Peking University Ndubisi Obiorah Centre for Law and Social Action Nigeria Stephanie Rupp National University of Singapore Dan Shalmon Georgetown University David Shinn George Washington

The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin

Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book s core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Dr Donald R

Wehrs, 2013-04-28 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford s Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa s Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum s Doguicimi 1938 D O Fagunwa s Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola s The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives The African Stakes of the Congo War J.

Clark, 2002-09-13 The African Stakes in the Congo War analyzes the Congo conflict by looking at the roles played by various states and factors in the conflict Part I introduces the conflict by showing the historical and regional context of the war Part II examines those states and groups that worked to support the Kaliba regime Part III examines the rebel groups working to overthrow Kabila and those intervening on their behalf Part IV looks at the role of supposedly neutral states such as South Africa and looks at the social and economic effects of the war by examining trans state factors such as rebel groups arms trading and economic consequences The collection includes both African and US UK scholars and covers the recent transfer of power from Laurent to Joseph Kabila Politics in the Developing World 4e Peter Burnell, Vicky Randall, Lise

Rakner, 2014-02 The fourth thoroughly updated edition of this well respected textbook explores the changing nature of politics in the developing world Leading experts in the field consider theoretical approaches society state relations and

Reassessing the Responsibility to Protect Brett R. O'Bannon, 2015-10-05 This book explores conceptual and operational questions regarding the development and implementation of the Responsibility to Protect The mass atrocity norm known as the Responsibility to Protect R2P has enjoyed meteoric success since the concept was introduced in 2001 But perhaps precisely because of how quickly the concept secured its privileged place in the pantheon of ideas and concerns in international affairs many fundamental questions remain concerning its origins its conceptual contents and its relevance to actual cases of mass atrocity This book seeks to explore that terrain by drawing together a group of scholars diverse enough to engage with the complex array of political legal and ethical questions raised by R2P Critical questions raised here include What are the limits of the authority that R2P confers on international actors What does the evolution of R2P mean for North South relations Just how significant is R2P in the context of the broader human rights landscape In addition to those conceptual and theoretical matters special attention is given to the operational context in which the meaning of R2P is ultimately rendered As events in Africa have figured so significantly into the norm s development the contributors pay special attention to the problems and prospects of mass atrocity prevention in that context This volume will be of much interest to students of the Responsibility to Protect war and conflict studies peacebuilding international law and IR Security Studies

Weak States, Strong Societies Amin Saikal, 2015-11-27 Since the disintegration of the Soviet Union and the end of the Cold War the previously well established organisation of world politics has been thrown into disarray While during the Cold War the bipolarity of the world gave other powers a defined structure within which to vie for power influence and material wealth the current global political landscape has been transformed by a diffusion of power As a result the world has seen the rise of sub national or quasi non state actors such as Hezbollah al Qaeda and the movement that calls itself Islamic State or ISIS These dramatic geopolitical shifts have heavily impacted state society relationships power and authority in the international system Weak States Strong Societies analyses the effect of these developments on the new world order arguing that the framework of weak state strong society appears even more applicable to the contemporary global landscape than it did during the Cold War Focusing on a range of regional contexts the book explores what constitutes a weak or strong state It will be essential reading for specialists in politics and international relations whether students or academic researchers
