Examining a New Paradigm of Heritage With

Philosophy, Economy, and Education Queirós, António dos Santos, 2020-06-19 OECD UNESCO the European Union and the United Nations acknowledge that formal educational systems alone cannot respond to rapid and constant technological social and economic change in society and that they should be reinforced by non formal educational practices Examining a New Paradigm of Heritage With Philosophy Economy and Education is a critical scholarly publication that provides comprehensive research on the sustainability of identity and cultural heritage The book establishes uniform and consistent conceptual criteria to identify and distinguish the different typological categories of heritage and discusses the concept of cultural landscape and environmental ethics Moreover connections between cultural heritage and natural heritage and the economy of heritage are explored Finally the book discusses cultural landscape as an educational resource with reading and interpretation of the cultural landscape as a basis for learning with a methodology of experimental science and its first metamorphosis of value Featuring a range of topics such as curriculum design ethics and environmental tourism this book is ideal for academicians sociologists biologists researchers policymakers and students

The Language of Landscape Anne Whiston Spirn, 1998-01-01 This eloquent and powerful book combines poetry and pragmatism to teach the language of landscape Anne Whiston Spirn author of the award winning The Granite Garden Urban Nature and Human Design argues that the language of landscape exists with its own syntax grammar and metaphors and that we imperil ourselves by failing to learn to read and speak this language To understand the meanings of landscape our habitat is to see the world differently and to enable ourselves to avoid profound aesthetic and environmental mistakes Offering examples that range across thousands of years and five continents Spirn examines urban rural and natural landscapes She discusses the thought of renowned landscape authors Thomas Jefferson Frank Lloyd Wright Frederick Law Olmsted Lawrence Halprin and of less well known pioneers including Australian architect Glenn Murcutt and Danish landscape artist C Th S rensen She discusses instances of great landscape designers using landscape fluently masterfully and sometimes cynically And in a probing analysis of the many meanings of landscape Spirn shows how one person s ideal landscape may be another s nightmare how Utopian landscapes can be dark There is danger when we lose the connection between a place and our understanding of it Spirn warns and she calls for change in the way we shape our environment based on the notions of nature as a set of ideas and landscape as the expression of action and ideas in place

Landscapes in History Philip Pregill, Nancy Volkman, 1999-01-25 The definitive one stop reference to the history of landscape architecture now expanded and revised This revised edition of Landscapes in History features for the first time new information rarely available elsewhere in the literature on landscape architecture in India China Southeast Asia and Japan It also expands the discussion of the modern period including current North American planning and design practices This unique highly regarded book traces the development of landscape architecture and environmental design from prehistory to modern times in Europe the Middle East Asia and North America It covers the many cultural political technological and philosophical issues influencing land use throughout history focusing not only on design topics but also on the environmental impact of human activity Landscape architects urban planners and students of these disciplines will find here The most comprehensive in depth and up to date overview of the subject Hundreds of stunning photographs and design illustrations A scholarly yet accessible treatment drawing on the latest research in archaeology geography and other disciplines The authors own firsthand observations and travel experiences Insight into the evolution of landscape architecture as a discipline Useful chapter summaries and bibliographies

Layered Landscapes Eric Nelson, Jonathan Wright, 2017-06-26 This volume explores the conceptualization and construction of sacred space in a wide variety of faith traditions Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and the religions of Japan It deploys the notion of layered landscapes in order to trace the accretions of praxis and belief the tensions between old and new devotional patterns and the imposition of new religious ideas and behaviors on pre existing religious landscapes in a series of carefully chosen locales Cuzco Edo Geneva Granada Herat Istanbul Jerusalem Kanchipuram Paris Philadelphia Prague and Rome Some chapters hone in on the process of imposing novel religious beliefs while others focus on how vestiges of displaced faiths endured The intersection of sacred landscapes with political power the world of ritual and the expression of broader cultural and social identity are also examined Crucially the volume reveals that the creation of sacred space frequently involved more than religious buildings and was a work of historical imagination and textual expression While a book of contrasts as much as comparisons the volume demonstrates that vital questions about the location of the sacred and its reification in the landscape were posed by religious believers across the early modern world

The Crystalline State: The determination of crystal structures, by H. Lipson and W. Cochran Sir William Lawrence Bragg, 1876

Dense + Green Cities Thomas Schröpfer, 2020-01-20 In which ways does a green building contribute to the ecology of its surroundings And how can ecologically designed urban districts with their green and blue networks link up with the elements and technologies of building design All dimensions of green building are investigated in this book in an effort to understand and evaluate some of the most recent and innovative Dense Green Cities in Asia the Americas and Europe

The AB Bookman's Yearbook, 1984 Reflections on Landscape Sheila Harvey, 1987 One of the results of the enormous technological changes of the 20th century has been the transformation of the surroundings in which we live The landscape has been altered dramatically both in the urban environment and in the countryside Landscape architecture has played a vital role in attempting to shape and control these transformations for the benefit of all of us and this volume presents a first hand account of the lives work and vision of five of its most eminent practitioners Based on interviews conducted by Ian Laurie and Michael Lancaster and including a posthumous chapter on Brenda Colvin the contributions come from Dame Sylvia Crowe Sir Geoffrey Jellicoe Sir Peter Shephard Professor Peter Youngman and Professor Brian Hackett Their recollections cover such diverse tasks as the creation of the post war new towns of Harlow and Basildon the landscaping of power stations reservoirs forests and crematoria and the designing of both public and private gardens What is particularly striking in these informal autobiographical accounts is the development of firmly held views on design philosophy education and social problems and the firm conviction that there must be cooperation between all persons concerned with the environment if its future is to be safeguarded This fascinating collection will provide stimulating reading for those professionally concerned with the environment at every level It will also offer the general reader a useful introduction to the world of landscape architecture and an intriguing insight into the professional lives of six exceptional people AB Bookman's Yearbook, 1984 Catalogue of the Library of the Graduate School of Design, Harvard University Harvard University. Graduate School of Design. Library, 1968 Proceedings of the Board of School Directors, 1920 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1985 Opportunities in Arts & Crafts Careers, Revised Edition Elizabeth Gardner, 2006 Are you looking for the latest information to open the door to the career of your dreams Opportunities in Arts and Crafts Careers covers a range of jobs in this industry from those that require high school and trade school to associate four year and graduate degrees You ll find up to date salary statistics training requirements as well as the lowdown on life on the job This comprehensive no nonsense guide takes the stress out of launching a career that s both satisfying and financially rewarding Urban Formation and Landscape Elizabeth Dean Hermann, 1996 Architecture of the Essential Pirkko Tuukkanen, 1994 In the personality of Alvar Aalto idealism and realism combined like the poles of a dynamo whose opposing forces form the source of its energy He was a creative artist and idealist for whom social and technical issues were also at the very core of his architectural oeuvre A significant but less known phase of Aalto s life work occurred during and immediately after the 2nd World War the subsequent reconstruction period of Finnish society The nation was in a state of crisis material and technical resources down to a minimum but Aalto reacted to this situation energetically realistically and with a great deal of optimism developing innumerable projects from simple standard housetypes to large scale reconstruction and planning strategies The extreme circumstances following the aftermath of war forced people to re evaluate what was essential and necessary and to eliminate all excess An inventive mind might manage to create more from less The present state of the world is also in a situation which requires serious evaluation and balancing of values and resources This year s symposium is held in a climate of economic and social upheaval In rich industrial countries the consumer fling is over and the global balance is precarious to say the least We have chosen the title of the symposium to stress the need to discuss what should be the essence of the art and technique of building when all that one can afford are the basic essentials This discussion does not revolve around questions of architectural style but rather on the fundamental material and spiritual living conditions vital for our culture to survive and prosper Alvar Aalto s partner Elissa Aalto was a central figure in the organisation of all the symposiums since 1976 She took part actively also in the planning of this year s symposium until her death in Spring 1994 Foreword The Magic Mirror of M.C.
