and individuals that have led to the development of Australia's Gold Coast. The story of the City of Gold Coast is more than just any story. It describes the growth of Australia's sixth largest city, the nation's most populous city that is not a state capital. A city of more than 600,000, it has grown at a rate of four per cent yearly since the 1950s. It sustains a growth rate well ahead of its infrastructure and its economy's capacity to provide full-time employment to the many new arrivals. And like so many coastal towns worldwide, this Gold Coast may soon be threatened by the tides.
