Psychotherapy and the Terrorized Patient E. Mark Stern, 1985 Successful interventions for helping terrorized patients cope with and overcome the pangs of uncertainty and dread which they experience constantly Dynamics of Identification and Conflict Markus Virgil Hoehne, Echi Christina Gabbert, John R. Eidson, 2025-03-01 Dealing with the dynamics of identification and conflict this book uses theoretical orientations ranging from political ecology to rational choice theory interpretive approaches Marxism and multiscalar analysis Case studies set in Africa Europe and Central Asia are grouped in three sections devoted to pastoralism identity and migration What connects all of these anthropological explorations is a close focus on processes of identification and conflict at the level of particular actors in relation to the behaviour of large aggregates of people and to systemic conditions Coming to Terms with Our Musical Past Edmund Joseph Goehring, 2018 A bold restorative vision of Mozart's works and Western art music generally as manifestations of an idealism rooted in the sociable nature of humans WINNER 2019 Marjorie Weston Emerson Award from the Mozart Society of America For over a generation now many leading performers critics and scholars of Mozart's music have taken a rejection of transcendence as axiomatic This essentially modernist antiromantic orientation attempts to neutralize the sorts of aesthetic experiences that presuppose an enchantment with Mozart's art an engagement traditionally articulated by such terms as intention mimesis author and genius And what is true of much recent Mozart interpretation is often manifest in the interpretation of Western art music more generally Edmund Goehring's Coming to Terms with Our Musical Past explores what gets lost when the vocabulary of enchantment is abandoned The book then proceeds to offer an alternative vision of Mozart's works and of the wider canon of Western art music A modernized poetics Goehring argues reduces art to mechanism or process It sees less because it excludes a necessary and enlarging human presence the generative and receiving I This fascinating new book length essay is addressed to any reader interested in the performing arts visual arts and literature and their relationship to the broader culture Goehring draws on seminal thinkers in art criticism and philosophy to propose that such works as Mozart's radiate an idealism that has human sociability both as its source and its object This book is available as an Open Access eBook under the Creative Commons license CC BY NC Reclaiming Jihad El Sayed Amin, 2015-02-16 This book is a scholarly and necessary critique of why the crime of terrorism is inconsistent with the ethical outlook of the Qur'an Anyone who wants to understand the Qur'an and its relationship to violence must read this book Khaled Abou El Fadl Omar and Azmeralda Alfi Professor of Law and chair of Islamic studies program UCLA School of Law In addition to illuminating the root causes of terrorism this book is a real contribution to the interfaith dialogue Muhammad Abu Layla professor of the comparative religions at al Azhar University Cairo A critique that challenges contemporary perceptions of the relationship between Islam and violence The book can be seriously commended to both specialists and non specialists in Qur'anic Studies theology and political science Jabal M Buaben associate professor Universiti Brunei Darussalam Sultan Omar Ali Saifuddin Centre for Islamic Studies ElSayed Amin critiques misreadings of key verses in the Qur'an that have been used to establish violence as the relational norm between Muslims and non-Muslims. He distinguishes both Islamic jihad and armed deterrence from modern terrorism through examination of the 9/11 attacks and proposes legal proscriptions for terrorism from the Qur'an on the basis of its political, social, and psychological impacts. ElSayed Amin is a senior lecturer of Islamic studies in English at al-Azhar University in Egypt and a visiting postdoctoral research fellow at the University of Brunei Darussalam (UBD) in Brunei. He is a member of the Supreme Council of Islamic Affairs in Cairo and a former Fulbright Scholar.

Justice on the Cross Kathleen Christison, 2023-03-09 At its heart liberation theology is a modern theology of resistance to the oppression imposed by colonialist and post-colonialist systems and even by churches that cooperate with secular centers of power to oppress the poor and disadvantaged. It is a grassroots social justice theology, a cri de c ur that seeks to give spiritual succor and hope to those living in seemingly hopeless circumstances. Palestinians, a people whose suffering has largely been forgotten by the world since Israel's establishment and who are most often stereotyped as extremists and enemies of Israel with no legitimate claim to their own homeland, are among the world's most marginalized populations. The small Palestinian Christian community, an indigenous population descended from Jesus's first followers, has created a liberation theology for the Palestinian context that reaches out to its own Christian faithful and their Muslim compatriots. This is a nonviolent political theological resistance that follows Jesus's teaching that God is present with all God's children and heeds Jesus's gospel injunctions to comfort the suffering and let the oppressed go free. For Palestinians, their very survival in the land is resistance to Israel's efforts to remove them, and liberation theology sustains their resistance. Jesus was the first liberation theologian.
