Television News:

News from Nowhere: Television and the News Edward Jay Epstein, 1974 A detailed probing analysis of the economic political and journalistic structure of network news organizations Edward Jay Epstein shows that internal corporate policy and budgetary requirements shape the directions of TV news coverage Television news does not mirror reality TV's essential aim is not to inform but to excite viewers enough to induce them to stay tuned

Managing Television News B. William Silcock, Don Heider, Mary T. Rogus, 2009-03-04 Managing Television News provides a practical introduction to the television news producer one of the most significant and influential roles in a newscast The book provides critical skill sets to help resolve ethical dilemmas as well

The Decade That Shaped Television News Sig Mickelson, 1998-08-27 Television news made meteoric progress in the 1950s It rose from being a plaything for the rich to a major factor in informing the American public and an aggressive rival to newspapers radio and news magazines This volume is an insider's account of the arduous and frequently critical steps undertaken by inexperienced staffs in the development of television news documentaries and sports broadcasts The author the first president of CBS News provides a treasure trove of facts and anecdotes about plotting in the corridors the ascendancy of stars and the retirement into oblivion of the less favored This volume is an important contribution to the history of television journalism and will appeal both to journalism and broadcasting scholars and to those interested in the meteoric rise of television

American Television News: The Media Marketplace and the Public Interest Steve M. Barkin, 2016-09-16 This concise history of the news broadcasting industry will appeal to both students and general readers Stretching from the radio days of the 1920s and 1930s and the early era of television after World War II through to the present the book shows how commercial interests regulatory matters and financial considerations have long shaped the broadcasting business The network dominance of the 1950s ushered in the new prominence of the anchorman a distinctly American development and gave birth to the golden age of TV broadcasting which featured hard hitting news and documentaries epitomized by the reports by CBS's Edward R. Murrow Financial pressures and advertising concerns in the 1960s led the networks to veer away from their commitment to serve the public interest and tabloid television celebrity gossip driven soft news and news magazines became increasingly widespread In the 1980s cable news further transformed broadcasting igniting intense competition for viewers in the media marketplace Focusing on both national and local news this stimulating volume examines the evolution of broadcast journalism It also considers how new electronic technologies will affect news delivery in the 21st century and whether television news can still both serve the public interest and maintain an audience

The Origins of Television News in America Mike Conway, 2009 This is the first in depth look at the development of the television newscast the most popular source of news for over forty five years During the 1940s most journalists ignored or dismissed television leaving the challenge to a small group of people working above New York City's Grand Central Terminal Without the pressures of ratings sponsors company oversight or many viewers the group refused to recreate newspapers radio or newsreels on the new medium They experimented argued tested and eventually settled on a format to exploit television s strengths This book documents that process challenging common myths including the importance of a popular anchor and television s inability to communicate non visual stories and crediting those whose work was critical in the formation of television as a news format and illustrating the pressures and professional roadblocks facing those who dare question journalistic traditions of any era Publisher Fighting for Air Liz Trotta,1994 In this piercing look into the grit and the glamour of television news award winning journalist Liz Trotta traces her career from the early days of broadcast news to the slick superficiality of today The first female television correspondent in Vietnam Trotta tells the searing truth about being a woman in a male dominated industry and recounts many of her most fascinating stories from the scandal of Chappaquiddick to the campaign trail of George Bush Filled with candid often stinging assessments of the movers and shakers in the industry Fighting for Air is the story of an uncompromising woman and of television news coming of age told from the trenches Media Semiotics Jonathan Bignell,1997 Using examples such as the Wonderbra advertisements and the film Waterworld Bignell presents an investigation of the critical approach to contemporary media studies and discusses the challenges posed by post structuralist theory and postmodernism That's the Way It Is Charles L. Ponce de Leon,2016-09-09 Ever since Newton Minow taught us sophisticates to bemoan the descent of television into a vast wasteland the dyspeptic chorus of jeremiahs who insist that television news in particular has gone from gold to dross gets noisier and noisier Charles Ponce de Leon says here in effect that this is misleading if not simply fatuous He argues in this well paced lively readable book that TV news has changed in response to broader changes in the TV industry and American culture It is pointless to bewail its decline That s the Way It Is gives us the very first history of American television news spanning more than six decades from Camel News Caravan to Countdown with Keith Oberman and The Daily Show Starting in the latter 1940s television news featured a succession of broadcasters who became household names even presences Eric Sevareid Walter Cronkite David Brinkley Peter Jennings Brian Williams Katie Couric and with cable expansion people like Glenn Beck Jon Stewart and Bill O Reilly But behind the scenes the parallel story is just as interesting involving executives producers and journalists who were responsible for the field s most important innovations Included with mainstream network news programs is an engaging treatment of news magazines like 60 Minutes and 20 20 as well as morning news shows like Today and Good Morning America Ponce de Leon gives ample attention to the establishment of cable networks CNN and the later competitors Fox News and MSNBC mixing in colorful anecdotes about the likes of Roger Ailes and Roone Arledge Frothy features and other kinds of entertainment have been part and parcel of TV news from the start viewer preferences have always played a role in the evolution of programming although the disintegration of a national culture since the 1970s means that most of us no longer follow the news as a civic obligation Throughout Ponce de Leon places his history in a broader cultural context emphasizing tensions between the public service mission of TV news and the quest for profitability and broad appeal Television in Black-and-white America Alan Nadel,2005 La couverture indique Alan Nadel s new book reminds us that most of the images on early TV were decidedly Caucasian and directed at predominantly white audiences Television did not invent whiteness for America but it did reinforce it as the norm particularly during the Cold War years Nadel now shows just how instrumental it was in constructing a narrow conservative and very white vision of America During this era prime time TV was dominated by adult Westerns with heroes like The Rebel s Johnny Yuma reincarnating Southern values and Bonanza s Cartwright family reinforcing the notion of white patriarchy programs that Nadel shows bristled with Cold War messages even as they spoke to the nation s mythology America had become visually reconfigured as a vast Ponderosa crisscrossed by concrete highways designed to carry suburban white drivers beyond the moral challenge of racism racial poverty and increasingly vocal civil rights demands The Television News Interview Akiba A. Cohen,1987-06 How and why does television news interviewing differ from country to country In this comparative study of the news in the UK the US Israel and West Germany Cohen shows that while the structure and content of TV news is very similar interviews reflect political social and cultural factors Cohen examines news interviewing from theoretical empirical and practical perspectives Through a comprehensive literature review content analysis and personal interviews with reporters he demonstrates that news interviews should be viewed as social constructs Publisher description The Broadcast Journalism Handbook Robert Thompson,Cindy Malone,2004 Complete with a news glossary job searching tips and helpful web sites this has everything you need to know about working in the television news business It covers many newsroom positions from assignment editors to producers reporters and anchors Radio and Television News Donald E. If It Bleeds, It Leads Matthew Robert Kerbel,2018-03-08 You ve been watching television news forever You re intimately familiar with the friendly faces and soothing voices that nightly tell you what s wrong with the world You think you know everything there is to know about them You re wrong If It Bleeds It Leads takes us minute by minute through two and one half real hours of syndicated local and network information programming to uncover the truth behind what passes as news Why is the only real difference between Jerry Springer and Dan Rather that Dan s guests usually don t need medical attention How did a load of baking powder spark two minutes of high strung local news coverage It s all here the personal revelations of talk show guests the dangers lurking in your neighborhood sports sex celebrity power and weather updates every ten minutes all real material taken from real broadcasts designed to keep viewers glued to the screen Broadcasting Journalism Jacoby Barrera,2019-03-19 Advertising research is a systematic process of marketing research conducted to improve the efficiency of advertising Advertising and media research explains the complexities of planning in a fast moving non complex style As we enter the new century of transformed advertising techniques and marketing challenges Research is to find out something new and advertising research is to find out how advertising works effectively and guide in making effective advertising decisions There are various kinds of advertising research and these include pre testing post testing campaign research and measuring advertising effectiveness Advertising follows logically after listening to consumer requirements introducing productive conditions distributing the goods However the actual sequence and emphasis deriving from the diverse sub cultures can be quite differentiated The effects of the different mass media on social psychological and physical aspects Research survey that segments the people based on what television programs they watch radio they listen and magazines they read Media research makes use of scientific methods of research It aims at providing an objective unbiased evaluation of data First the research problem is identified and then a prescribed set of procedures of research is followed to investigate the problem Only thereafter comes report of the findings This book is more catered to readers who have no background on the media It is more informational than instructional It is great if you are looking into learning about how the media works per se but not if you are concerned about effectively positioning your products in the market This Program Is Brought to You By... Joshua A. Braun, 2015-11-24 Journalism television cable and online media are all evolving rapidly At the nexus of these volatile industries is a growing group of individuals and firms whose job it is to develop and maintain online distribution channels for television news programming Their work and the tensions surrounding it provide a fulcrum from which to pry analytically at some of the largest shifts within our media landscape Based on fieldwork and interviews with different teams and organizations within MSNBC this multi disciplinary work is unique in its focus on distribution which is rapidly becoming as central as production to media work Official Congressional Directory United States. Congress, 1991 Reality Show Howard Kurtz, 2007-10-09 Dan Rather Tom Brokaw Peter Jennings They were on a first name basis with the country for a generation leading viewers through moments of triumph and tragedy But now that a new generation has succeeded them the once glittering job of network anchor seems unmistakably tarnished In an age of instantaneous Internet news cable echo chambers and iPod downloads who really needs the evening news And by extension who needs Katie Couric Brian Williams and Charlie Gibson But the anchors still have a megaphone capable of cutting through the media static Their coverage of Iraq helped turn the country against that bloody war and they are now playing a leading role in chronicling the collapse of George Bush's presidency and the 2008 race to succeed him Yet even as the anchors fight for ratings supremacy the mega corporations they work for have handed them a bigger challenge saving an American institution In this freewheeling intimate account of life atop the media pyramid award winning bestselling author Howard Kurtz takes us inside the newsrooms and executive suites of CBS NBC and ABC capturing the deadline judgments image making jealousies and gossip of this high pressure business Whether it is Couric trying to regain her morning magic while coping with tabloid stories about her boyfriends Williams reporting from New Orleans and Baghdad while worrying about his ailing father or Gibson weighing whether to follow his wife into retirement while grappling with having to report the explicit details of sex scandals Kurtz brings to life the daily battles that define their lives The narrative reflects an extraordinary degree of access to such corporate chieftains as Jeff Zucker and Les Moonves star correspondents and the anchors themselves Their goal create an on screen persona that people will tune in to and trust Yet they are faced with a graying shrinking audience as younger viewers flock to Jon Stewart whose influence on the real newscasts is palpable Here is the untold story of what these journalistic celebrities think of their bosses cable competitors bloggers and each other

News of the World Klaus Bruhn Jensen,2003-12-16 This is the first in depth study of how television viewers around the world respond to the ever increasing mass of information available from news programmes Based on individual and household interviews in seven countries including India Mexico Italy and Denmark the contributors examine the flow of news information across national and international borders
