Michael Oakeshott: Notebooks, 1922-86 Michael Oakeshott, Luke O'Sullivan, 2014-01-21 From the 1920s to the 1980s Oakeshott filled dozens of notebooks with his private reflections both personal and intellectual Their contents range from aphorisms to miniature essays forming a unique record of his intellectual trajectory over his entire career This volume makes them accessible in print for the first time drawing together a host of his previously inaccessible observations on politics philosophy art education and much else besides Religion in particular emerges as an ongoing concern for him in a way that is not visible from his published works The notebooks also provide a unique source of insight into Oakeshott's musings on life thanks to the hitherto unsuspected existence of the series of Belle Dame notebooks that were written in the late 1920s and early 1930s but which only came to light two decades after his death At the same period in which he was developing the concepts that would form Experience and its Modes Oakeshott's personal life lead him to reflect extensively on love and death themes that highlight his enduring romantic affinities Accompanied by an original editorial introduction the volume allows readers to see for themselves exactly which works Oakeshott used in compiling each of his notebooks providing a much clearer record of his intellectual influences than has previously been available It will be an essential addition to the library of his works for all those interested in his ideas

Simone Weil and Continental Philosophy A. Rebecca Rozelle-Stone, 2017-11-08 Simone Weil is an often overlooked thinker whose insights could radically reshape contemporary discourses on religion nature art ethics work politics and education This collection of essays situates Simone Weil's thought alongside prominent Continental thinkers and their philosophical concerns to show the ways in which she belongs to but also stands outside some of the major streams of Continental discourse including phenomenology ethics of embodied disposition and difference and post Marxian political thought For the first time in a major work intersections between the ideas of Weil and figures such as Nietzsche Berdyaev Foucault Blanchot Merleau Ponty Levinas Chr tien Agamben Fanon and Ranci re are closely examined The volume is authored by an international team of leading scholars in Weil studies and in contemporary Continental philosophy of religion more broadly Simone Weil and Continental Philosophy is not only an unprecedented resource for Weil scholars who seek to read her in broader and more current philosophical terms but also an important addition to the libraries of scholars and students of Continental philosophy and theology engaged in thinking about some of the most pressing questions of our time

A Missionary's Notebook Sister Mercedes, 1908 A Palestine Notebook, 1918-1923 Charles Robert Ashbee, 1923 The Conveyancer's Notebook Arthur Henry COSWAY, 1927 The Concept of Affectivity in Early Modern Philosophy Ádám Smrcz, Maximilian Kiener, Jan Forsman, Hanna Vandenbussche, Davide Monaco, Filip Buyse, Keith Green, Brian Glenney, Christopher Davidson, Zsolt Bagi, Dávid Bartha, Dan O'Brien, Hans D. Muller, Csaba Olay, 2017-09-01 There is no need to argue for the relevance of affectivity in early modern philosophy When doing research and conceptualizing affectivity in this period we hope to attain a basic interpretive framework for philosophy in general one that is independent of and cutting across such unfruitful divisions as the time honored interpretive distinction between rationalists and empiricists which we consider untenable when applied to 17th century thinkers Our volume consists of papers based on the contributions to the First Budapest Seminar in Early Modern Philosophy held on 14-15 October 2016 at Eötvös Loránd University Budapest When composing this volume our aim was not to present a systematic survey of affectivity in early modern philosophy Rather our more modest goal was to foster collaboration among researchers working in different countries and different traditions Many of the papers published here are already in implicit or explicit dialogue with others We hope that they will generate more of an exchange of ideas in the broader field of early modern scholarship

The Frankenstein Notebooks Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley, 1996 Monstrosities Paul Youngquist, 2003 Paul Youngquist reveals the cultural politics of embodiment in Britain in the late 18th early 19th centuries Drawing on the histories of medicine economics liberalism nationalism his work shows that bodies are not simply born but rather built by cultural practices directed toward particular social ends

George Eliot's Works: Impressions of Theophrastus Such. Essays. Leaves from a notebook George Eliot, 1916 First and Last Notebooks Simone Weil, 1970 Introducing the Selected Works of Simone Weil Some of Simone Weil's most important thinking was done through the medium of her notebooks She used them in several inter related ways First she used them to note things she had read and was researching Far more often they were workbooks where she worked through her ideas Many of the ideas in her completed essays can first be found in her notebooks and thus the notebooks are invaluable for adding context and nuance along with a sense of development to the reading of those later essays Finally her notebooks simply contain Weil's aphoristic writing at its best in its most striking presentation For that reason alone the last two notebooks which she wrote while in New York and London in 1942-43 published in French as La Connaissance surnaturelle Supernatural Knowledge have been read as books of great wisdom This volume also includes her first notebook from the year 1934 not long after her time in the factory and its subject matter reflects this period in her life
