Model as Machine Albert Smith, 2007-03-30 This book offers an explanation of why scale models are important to the design process Albert Smith takes the reader through the history and significance of models in architecture from the magic of the Egyptian scale model to the present day Through this description of the relationship between architecture and the scale model Smith demonstrates the most effective process between concept and machine between the idea and the final building The great value of this book is to reveal the nature of the scale model and to unlock the tremendous potential of this design tool as a thinking and communicative advice His chronological analysis goes on from Egypt through Rome to the relationship between the Greek paradigm scale model and then on to Medieval and Renaissance models It concludes with the models of the Spanish architect Antonio Gaudi the Russian Constructivists the American architect Louis Khan and finally looks at the role of scale models in the present day through the work of the Polish American architect Daniel Libeskind and the American Frank Gehry The Fra, 1913 The machinic city Marcos P. Dias, 2021-03-23 As human and machine agency become increasingly intermingled and digital media is overlaid onto the urban landscape The machinic city argues that performance art can help us to understand contemporary urban living Dias analyses several performance art interventions from artists such as Blast Theory Rafael Lozano Hemmer and Rimini Protokoll which draw from a rich history of avant garde art movements to create spaces for deliberation and reflection on urban life and to speculate on its future While cities are increasingly controlled by autonomous processes mediated by technical machines Dias analyses the performative potential of the aesthetic machine as it assembles with media capitalist human and urban machines The aesthetic machine of performance art in urban space is examined through its different components design city and technology actants This unveils the unpredictable nature and emerging potential of performance art as it unfolds in the machinic city which consists of assemblages of efficient and not so efficient machines The Third Pandemic Pierre Ouellette, 1997-04 On discovering a deadly virus a woman scientist is told to keep quiet and to give her company time to prepare an antidote so when the virus strikes they will have a monopoly She refuses and the company resorts to violence Fortunately she meets Lieutenant Paris of the Seattle police Deus machine Pierre Ouellette, 1995 The Age of Spiritual Machines Ray Kurzweil, 2000-01-01

NATIONAL BESTSELLER Bold futurist Ray Kurzweil author of The Singularity Is Near offers a framework for envisioning the future of machine intelligence a book for anyone who wonders where human technology is going next The New York Times Book Review Kurzweil offers a thought provoking analysis of human and artificial intelligence and a unique look at a future in which the capabilities of the computer and the species that invented it grow ever closer BILL GATES Imagine a world where the difference between man and machine blurs where the line between humanity and technology fades and where the soul and the silicon chip unite This is not science fiction This is the twenty first century according to Ray Kurzweil the restless genius The Wall Street Journal ultimate thinking machine Forbes and inventor of the most innovative and compelling technology of our era In his inspired hands life in the new millennium no longer seems daunting Instead it promises to be an age in which the marriage of human sensitivity and artificial intelligence fundamentally alters and improves the way we live More than just a list of predictions Kurzweil s prophetic blueprint for the future guides us through the inexorable advances that will result in Computers exceeding the memory capacity and computational ability of the human brain with human level capabilities not far behind Relationships with automated personalities who will be our teachers companions and lovers Information fed straight into our brains along direct neural pathways Eventually the distinction between humans and computers will have become sufficiently blurred that when the machines claim to be conscious we will believe them
