From Instinct To Identity Breger, From Instinct to Identity begins an account of personality development by tracing the legacy of the human species from its primate heritage to its present form. Findings from ethology, primate studies, linguistics, and other sources are used to construct an account of the unique features of man. The evolution of early cultures is shown through use of anthropological work. The ideas of Sigmund Freud, particularly as modified by Erik Erikson, are presented together with the theories and findings of Jean Piaget and his collaborators in a series of chapters that follow the person from infancy to adolescence. Other chapters examine play, dreams, and fantasy, anxiety and its effects on the development of self, moral development, and identity. The emphasis throughout is on the growth of self and its impact on social norms. The author blends together theories and findings from psychoanalysis, psychology, ethology, humanistic psychology, and child development to develop a model of human motivation in which the basic emotional systems of love, anxiety, aggression, curiosity, and intelligence are traced from their primate background through the human life cycle. He brings together classic ideas on guilt and conscience with research on moral reasoning and ego development and clarifies difficult ideas in a clear, direct prose style. This classic volume, now available in paperback with a new introduction by the author, will find a new audience among anthropologists as well as psychologists interested in the evolution of human behavior.

Louis Breger is professor of psychoanalytic studies emeritus at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena. He is a practicing psychotherapist and psychoanalyst and is the founding president of the Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis, Los Angeles. He has written other books and a number of scholarly articles on psychoanalytic topics, including the acclaimed biography Freud: Darkness in the Midst of Vision and Dostoevsky: The Author as Psychoanalyst.
