

Roses For No Reason

By Hal Peilcock

I know how you love roses
Any color any time
How you always like to plant them by the door
But the world keeps going faster
So little time for love and laughter
I don't stop to smell the roses any more

You always tell me to bring roses
But I never have the time
Cause I always am the first one out the door
And because I don't bring roses
You say what this really shows is
That I don't really love you anymore

Bring me roses for no reason
Any time or any reason
Cause you don't need a reason to bring roses
But if there is a reason
Couldn't be a better reason
Than the one that I am happy to suppose is

There's no excuse not bringing roses
And to risk what it exposes
And she shouldn't have to tell you anymore
Because what one never ever knows is
Although you can count the roses
Is the number of the days your love is more

So go out and get some roses
Help her plant them by the door
And remember who you should be thankful for Because one day you might bring roses
Find what you can't presuppose is
There'll be no one to bring roses anymore

Bring me roses for no reason
Any time or any reason
Cause you don't need a reason to bring roses
But if there is a reason
Couldn't be a better reason
Than the one that I am happy to suppose is
