The Reform Of Power:

The Power Struggles over the Post-neoliberal Social Security System Reforms in Venezuela and Ecuador

Ezequiel Luis Bistoletti, 2018-08-25 This book carries out a comparative analysis of the power struggles over the post neoliberal social security reforms in Venezuela and Ecuador The research breaks down why the social security system reform initiated by Hugo Chavez government in Venezuela has come down since its passing in 2002 whereas the social security system reform initiated by Rafael Correa's government in Ecuador has come along in spite of the obstacles since 2007 All in all the analysis determined that the struggles over the social security system reforms in both countries remarkably corresponded to each other with regard to their structural conditions points of contention and contending actors In contrast the analysis established substantial divergences regarding the ways in which the struggles over both reforms came about due to the divergent development of the struggles for hegemony between government and opposition These divergences finally brought about the indefinite stagnation of the reform in Venezuela and the advancement of subsequent partial reforms aimed at the universalization of social security in Ecuador

Assessment of Power Sector Reforms in Asia Asian Development Bank, 2015-07-01 This report examines three economies in different parts of Asia Georgia Sri Lanka and Viet Nam that introduced power sector reforms in recent years to create a commercially viable and efficient power sector Each took a different route in moving away from a monopoly state owned utility toward the common goal of a competitive market based and better regulated power sector This report documents the broad spectrum of their power sector reform efforts experiences and relative successes as well as shortfalls then uses international standard indicators to assess their economic social and environmental outcomes Other economies should be able to draw valuable lessons and insights from this report for their own power sector planning and policy and strategy formulation

Power Sector Reform in SubSaharan Africa J. Turkson, 2000-03-02 As part of the wave of liberalisation sweeping most parts of the world power sectors around the globe are coming under intense scrutiny with some being restructured This book presents six country case studies to examine the process and implementation experiences of power sector reform in Subsaharan Africa
