The Death Of Sleep:

Metonymies and Metaphors for Death Around the World Wojciech Wachowski, Karen Sullivan, 2021-11-29 This book reflects on the ways in which metonymy and metaphor are used conceptually and linguistically to mitigate the more difficult dimensions of death and dying setting out a unique line of research within Conceptual Metaphor Theory The volume argues that metonymic and metaphoric descriptions of death and dying reflect taboos concealment and other considerations not found in figurative descriptions of life producing distinct forms of euphemism frames and mental spaces particular to conceptualizations of death The first part takes a closer look at metonymy to illuminate the ways in which it allows a person to zoom in on death's more inoffensive dimensions or zoom out from its more troubling aspects The second part focuses on the more palatable concepts which metaphorically structure and help to better understand death A wide range of classical and modern examples from European Asian Australian and African languages and cultures showcase points of overlap and divergence Opening up new lines of inquiry into research on death and dying and offering a linguistically focused complement to anthropological and religious studies on the topic this book will be of interest to scholars in cognitive linguistics sociolinguistics cross cultural communication and cultural studies

Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma Jessica Gildersleeve, 2014-02-15 Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma analyses the treatment of memory and the past in Bowen's writing through the lens of trauma theory It draws on the theories of Jacques Derrida H L ne Cixous Julia Kristeva Sigmund Freud and Cathy Caruth to propose that Bowen's work is best understood through the psychological narratological and linguistic effects of trauma in her fiction Bowen's writing complicates existing deconstructive and psychoanalytic models of trauma and literature and testifies to the responsibility of survival and the ethics of bearing witness

Death and its Reality IDP Research Division, 2018-04-26 We have been brought to this life by the will of the Giver and Initiator of life and we will leave this life when the One Who gave us the soul decides to take it away People will come and others will go but when we look closely at this we discover the secret behind this continual process of life and death In this book all that happens after death when people enter their graves what happens beneath the grave etc has been reported from the Qur'an and Ahadeeth The reports whose chains are not authentic and cannot be proven to have come from the Messenger S have been ignored Also ignored are the methodology of those who reject the idea of accepting authentic ahadeeth if they are ahaad Furthermore those who twist the meanings of the texts those who took their minds as judges to judge the texts and who turned things in reverse order and made the judge subject to judgement They went astray and led others astray In some cases they went so far as to reject many issues of the Hereafter which are proven in authentic reports based on rational analogies which had they examined them closely would have realized their absurdity Had they pondered the matters of the Hereafter in any depth they would have realized that the Hereafter is a different world and that the standards and measures of the Hereafter are different from those of this world We have discussed this important dogmatic principle one of the basic Islamic doctrine at length This eBook is compiled utilizing some of the highest quality and best standards of formatting in order to preserve and distinguish the layout of the eBook It is an excellent work which caters for a large audience of the English speaking world and can be read by virtually all age groups Guaranteed to be enjoyed by all those who read it
