The Defence Of Lawino:

The Defence of Lawino Okot p'Bitek, 2001 A new translation of the late Okot p Bitek s classic epic poem Wer pa Lawino first published in Acholi in 1969 and recently listed in Africa s 100 Best Books Lawino is a female voice taking issue with her husband whom she witnesses imitating a European culture which is destroying a more deeply rooted African culture The Defence of Lawino Taban lo Liyong, 2000

Lawino's People Okot p'Bitek, Frank Knowles Girling, 2019 Okot p Bitek s epic poem Song of Lawino debates Acholi customs around the time that Uganda became independent This book presents seminal anthropological works from that period by p Bitek himself and by Frank Girling who was researching among the Acholi when p Bitek was a teenager They were both introduced to anthropology in Oxford by Edward Evan Evans Pritchard and they both faced difficulties writing up their fieldwork Girling a veteran of the Spanish Civil War was a suspected communist activist and was expelled from Uganda in 1950 Against the odds he managed to complete his doctorate but the Colonial Office demanded cuts to the published version Okot p Bitek is a famous African creative writer but his engaging anthropological studies have been unjustly neglected He found academic ideas about Africans taught at Oxford misconceived and offensive He rejected established analytical approaches and consequently the university failed his doctorate in 1970

The Comic Imagination in Modern African Literature and Cinema Maik Nwosu, 2016-02-05 This book is a seminal study that significantly expands the interdisciplinary discourse on African literature and cinema by exploring Africa s under visited carnivalesque poetics of laughter Focusing on modern African literature as well as contemporary African cinema particularly the direct to video Nigerian film industry known as Nollywood the book examines the often neglected aesthetics of the African comic imagination In modern African literature which sometimes creatively traces a path back to African folklore and in Nollywood with its aesthetic relationship to Onitsha Market Literature the pertinent styles range from comic simplicitas to comic magnitude with the facilitation of language characterization and plot by a poetics of laughter or lightness as an important aspect of style The poetics at work is substantially carnivalesque a comic preference or tendency that is attributable in different contexts to a purposeful comic sensibility or an unstructured but ingrained or virtual comic mode In the best instances of this comic vision the characteristic laughter or lightness can facilitate a reevaluation or reappreciation of the world either because of the aesthetic structure of signification or the consequent chain of signification This referentiality or progressive signification is an important aspect of the poetics of laughter as the African comic imagination variously reflects across genres both the festival character of comedy and its pedagogical value This book marks an important contribution to African literature postcolonial literature world literature comic imagination poetics critical theory and African cinema
