Frank Aubrey,2016-01-08 Beneath the verandah of a handsome comfortable looking residence near Georgetown the principal town of British Guiana a young man sat one morning early in the year 1890 attentively studying a volume that lay open on a small table before him It was easy to see that he was reading something that was for him at least of more than ordinary interest something that seemed to carry his thoughts far away from the scene around him for when presently he raised his eyes from the book they looked out straight before him with a gaze that evidently saw nothing of that on which they rested He was a handsome young fellow of perhaps twenty two years of age rather tall and well made with light wavy hair and blue grey eyes that had in them an introspective somewhat dreamy expression but that nevertheless could light up on occasion with an animated glance The house stood on a terrace that commanded a view of the sea and in the distance white sails could be seen making their way across the blue water in the light breeze and the dazzling sunlight Nearer at hand were waving palms glowing flowers humming insects and gaudily coloured butterflies all the beauties of a tropical garden On one side of him was the open window of a sitting room that shaded as it was by the verandah looked dark and cool compared with the glare of the scorching sun outside From this room came the sounds of a grand piano and of the sweet voice of a girl singing a simple and pathetic ballad The Devil-Tree of El Dorado a Novel Aubrey Frank,2016-06-23 The devil-tree of El
