Review of Current Military Literature, 1990 Military Review, 1990 Professional Journal of the United States Army, 1990 The Collapse of East German Communism David Keithly, 1992-08-21 This book focuses on a key aspect of the German question the problem of German national identity and communist ideology in their historical perspective since 1945 and their immediate clash in the downfall of the German Democratic Republic GDR in 1989 The book's theme might be summarized as German identity recovered The book is unique in that it is in part an eyewitness account of one of Europe's most startling transformations In the four decades of its existence the GDR did not succeed in fostering a separate political or social identity and thus an underlying difficulty of the state was never resolved The overriding objective of the political socialization process in the GDR was to instill socialist political culture into the citizenry This political culture had not only to be uniform with ideological imperatives and aspirations but had to stand on its own because of the absence of a broader based national culture Given the newness of the state and its political institutions and the continual challenge on the national question presented by the mere existence of the Federal Republic of Germany FRG the East German Communist Party SED always faced an uphill task This book should be of interest to students and scholars interested in Germany in Europe and in the fate of communism We Were the People Dirk Philipsen, 1993 On the night of November 9 1989 an electrified world watched as the Berlin Wall came down Communism was dead the Cold War was over and freedom was on the rise or so it seemed We Were the People tells the story behind this momentous event In an extraordinary series of interviews the key actors in the drama that transformed East Germany speak for themselves describing what they did what happened and why and what it has meant to them The result is a powerful firsthand account of a rare historical moment one that reverberates far beyond the toppled wall that once divided Germany and the world The drama We Were the People recreates is remarkable for its richness and complexity Here are citizens organizing despite threats of bloody crackdowns party functionaries desperately trying to survive as time honored political prerogatives crumble beneath their feet an oppressed people discovering the possibilities of power and freedom but also the sobering strangeness of new political realities With their success East Germans encountered the overpowering might of this Western neighbor and stand perplexed before the onslaught of real estate agents glossy consumer ads political professionalism and the discovery that a lifetime of social experience has suddenly lost all usable context They became in the words of one participant a people without biography Over all the recent events and unlikely turns recounted here one thing remains paramount the sweep of the initial democratic conception that animated the East German revolution We Were the People brings this movement to life in all its drama and detail and vividly recovers a historic moment that altered forever the shape of modern Europe Some Voices of the People Babel Bohley Mother of the Revolution Rainer Eppelmann Protestant Pastor Klaus Kaden Church Emissary to the Opposition Hans Modrow Former Communist Prime Minister Ludwig Mehlhorn Opposition Theorist Ingrid Kopp Opposition Representative Frank Eigenfeld New Forum Harald Wagner Democracy Now Sebastian Pflugbeil Democratic Strategist East German Workers Cornelia Matzke Independent Women's Alliance Andr Brie Party Vice Chairman Gerhard Ruden Environmental Activist Werner Bramke Party Academic
