Surveillance in Asian Cinema Karen Fang, 2017-02-24 Critical theory and popular wisdom are rife with images of surveillance as an intrusive repressive practice often suggestively attributed to eastern powers and opposed to western liberalism Hollywood dominated global media has long promulgated a geopoliticized east west axis of freedom vs control This book focuses on Asian and Asia based films and cinematic traditions obscured by lopsided western hegemonic discourse and more specifically probes these films treatments of a phenomenon that western film often portrays with neo orientalist hysteria Exploring recent and historical movies made in post social and anti Communist societies such as China Hong Kong Taiwan Vietnam and South Korea the book picks up on the political and economic concerns implicitly underlying Sinophobic and anti Communist Asian images in Hollywood films while also considering how these societies and states depict the issues of centralization militarization and technological innovation so often figured as distinctive of the difference between eastern despotism and western liberalism

Fredric Jameson Robert T. Tally, 2014-06-20 Fredric Jameson is the most important Marxist critic in the world today While consistently operating at the cutting edge of literary and cultural studies Jameson has remained committed to seemingly old fashioned philosophical discourses most notably dialectical criticism and utopian thought In Fredric Jameson The Project of Dialectical Criticism Robert Tally surveys Jameson s entire oeuvre from his early studies of Sartre and formal criticism through his engagements with postmodernism and globalisation to his recent readings of Hegel Marx and the valences of the dialectic The book is both a comprehensive critical guide to Jameson s theoretical project and itself a convincing argument for the power of dialectical criticism to understand the world today

Introducing Criticism in the 21st Century Julian Wolfreys, 2015-03-08 This new and revised edition provides 14 chapters introducing new modes of hybrid criticism which have emerged in the twenty first century

East-West Film Journal ,1994 100 Cult Films Ernest Mathijs, Xavier Mendik, 2026-03-19 A guide to one hundred cult films from across world cinema from the silent period to the present day

Projecting Paranoia Ray Pratt, 2001 A wide ranging and idiosyncratic look at sixty years of politics and film that uncovers how American movies have mirrored and even challenged anxieties and paranoid perceptions embedded in American society since the start of the Cold War The first book to take a sweeping look at 60 years of film and analyze them thematically

Cinematic Spaces of Freedom & the Challenge of American Film Festivals Roya Zahra Rastegar, 2011 Buñuel, siglo XXI Isabel Santaolalla, 2004 El presente volumen incluye una amplia variedad de artículos sobre la figura de

Luis Buñuel 1900-1983 escritos por algunos de los especialistas más prominentes dentro del mundo de los estudios fílmicos. Se trata de una colección que por primera vez recoge en un mismo volumen trabajos en español, francés e inglés. Tal decisión no solo supone una muestra de respeto hacia los tres idiomas en los que se expresó Buñuel sino que es también una forma de poner en evidencia el reconocimiento que su obra ha tenido y tiene en los entornos francófono y anglofono además del hispano. Este libro nace con la ambición de abarcar la totalidad del trabajo de Buñuel principalmente sus películas pero también sus escritos. Cuenta además con capítulos que abordan cuestiones biográficas como las relaciones de Buñuel con otros cineastas de la época o con escritores y artistas. El Buñuel que emerge de estas páginas confirma el hecho de que el director aragonés sigue siendo uno de los cineastas más famosos e influyentes del siglo XX. Los capítulos aquí reunidos dan cuenta de todas las fases de su carrera: la primera etapa surrealista, sus colaboraciones con Dalí, su amistad con Lorca y con otros autores coetáneos, su trabajo en el cine francés, los años del exilio y la fase tardía y más internacional. En distintas contribuciones se concede importancia a la forma, la ideología, la temática, las películas alimenticias de su periodo mexicano y las más personales y artísticas consideradas su legado más universal y perdurable. Kritikon Litterarum, 1993. Choice, 1993. The Cinema of David Cronenberg. Ernest Mathijs, 2008. David Cronenberg has moved from the depths of low budget exploitation horror to become one of North America's most respected movie directors. Since the early 1970s the soft spoken Baron of Blood has attracted widespread controversies with a steady stream of shocks: crazed parasites in Shivers (1975), exploding heads in Scanners (1981), revolutionary flesh technology in Videodrome (1983), mutating bugs in The Fly (1986), car crash scars in Crash (1996) and psychopathic bursts of gunfire in A History of Violence (2005). This new study provides an overview of Cronenberg's films in the light of their international reception, placing them firmly in the cultures they influenced. It also highlights often ignored works such as the race movie Fast Company (1979) and includes a chapter on the latest film Eastern Promises (2007). Amidst bans and boos Cronenberg has developed a consistent cult following for his chronicles of humankind's struggle with its ever-changing environment bugged by technology and changing social roles, becoming a hero of contemporary culture.

Barcelones/as. Andrew J. Deiser, 2005. By examining four novels in this study I explore two important transitions in recent Spanish history: the transition to democracy following the death of Francisco Franco in 1975 and the transformation of Spain from a modern to a postmodern society during the latter half of the twentieth century. More concretely I analyze Terenci Moix's El día que va morir Marilyn (1969), Montserrat Roig's El temps de les cireres (1977), Manuel Vázquez Montalbán's Los mares del Sur (1979) and Juan Marsé's El amante bilingüe (1990) in relation to these historical changes. I conduct a three-tiered analysis for each novel. First I look at how the novel responds to the political context in which it was published. Second I examine how social conflict between Barcelona's upper and lower classes is inscribed into the novel's narrative. Finally I explore how different narrative features of each novel reveal the historical shift to late capitalism. This study demonstrates that each of these novels creates an imaginary Barcelona that responds to and is shaped by its political, social, economic and cultural surroundings Moreover when viewed as a whole these narratives show the emergence of a working class consciousness among the immigrants from southern Spain who migrated to Barcelona during the period that spanned from the early 1950s to the early 1970s While this working class consciousness largely remains below the surface of the narratives in El dia que va morir Marilyn and El temps de les cireres it stands at the forefront in Los mares del Sur and El amante bilingüe In addition this study demonstrates that when viewed together these novels reveal that the years surrounding the political transition from dictatorship to democracy in Spain are inextricably bound to the broader historical transition from modernity to postmodernity

The Landscape of Hollywood Westerns Deborah A. Carmichael, 2006 The essays in this volume scrutinize the special place of nature and landscape in films including silent documentary and feature length film that are specifically American and Western
