The Glory Of Athens:

The Glory of Athens Joseph W. Day, 1980 The Glory of Athens James Taris, 2020-08-18 James Taris was only nine when he fantasised about becoming an actor but life got in the way and nothing happened for nearly forty years By chance he saw an amateur theatre play and was so inspired to turn his childhood fantasy into reality that within six weeks he had written The Glory of Athens a play that he performed twenty nine times over the next twelve months in nine countries on five continents while on a 400 day world tour In this book James goes into great detail explaining all the stages he went through to write promote produce and perform The Glory of Athens his first ever play writing effort It is an inspirational journey that will be enjoyed by budding writers and readers alike About the Author James Taris is an accomplished author poet playwright actor and public speaker He has travelled to nineteen countries over the past three years thus earning himself the title of a modern day globetrotting Odysseus He lives the life he advocates sharing happiness and hope with audiences all over the world An evening with James Taris can be a life changing experience This book reinforces his philosophy and attitude to life Performance History I wrote The Glory of Athens in June 2003 while I was in Shanghai China at the beginning of my 400 Day World Tour And I've since given quite a number of readings and performances in theatres halls offices and homes to the public and groups that have hosted me all over the world James Taris SYNOPSIS The Glory of Athens is a comedy on overcoming adversity that has six Ancient Greek geniuses come back to life and display the characteristics which made them so successful The six characters are Pericles Archimedes Socrates Demosthenes Homer and Odysseus The play has some hilarious monologues from these six characters and Demi a modern day accountant who is burdened with a seemingly impossible task In a desperate bid for help Demi prays to God who sends the Ancient Greek goddess Athena to his aid Athena gives Demi a bag of magical items which enable him to go back into time around 440 BC when the Parthenon was being built and see these Ancient Greek masters in action though not exactly how he'd imagined them to be Pericles teaches him how to tackle problems by soliciting the help of the best minds available Unfortunately Pericles army suffers huge losses in a recent battle so he's now confronted with a much bigger crisis than Demi's saving the glory of Athens So the focus then turns to finding someone to help Pericles solve his seemingly impossible task Archimedes is self centred and obsessed with his own genius getting excited about even his smallest achievements Socrates has just been practising and toning up his repertoire of clever arguments to confuse his opponents Demosthenes is a smooth talker who has overcome a speech impediment by practising with a mouth full of marbles Homer is very inspiring and he shares in verse how even though blind he was able to use persistence and perseverance to realise his dreams Odysseus is Pericles last hope and in a flash of enlightenment comes to the conclusion that we can have eternal glory by becoming the best we can be But although each character is placed in ridiculously funny situations they are all presented as strong role models for Demi who gleans a little from each one on his journey to tackling he has been burdened him with And the play builds to a very powerful conclusion as we find out if

Pericles can save The Glory of Athens and if Demi can solve his own problem too The Glory of Athens James Taris,2020-12-15 Six ancient Greek geniuses and one modern day loser all rolled up into one hilarious performance Follow Demi as he desperately seeks help to overcome a seemingly impossible task And help comes to him from a very unlikely source in the guise of Goddess Athena who gets six of history s greatest minds to help out But the job isn t as simple as it seems especially when Pericles is confronted with a much greater problem than Demi s saving the glory of Athens
