Henty,2007-04-01 The Golden Canyon G. A. Henty,2014-05-27 In the month of August 1856 the bark Northampton was lying in the harbor of San Diego In spite of the awning spread over her deck the heat was almost unbearable Not a breath of wind was stirring in the land locked harbor and the bare and arid country round the town afforded no relief to the eye The town itself looked mean and poverty stricken for it was of comparatively modern growth and contained but a few buildings of importance Long low warehouses fringed the shore for here came for shipping vast quantities of hides as San Diego which is situated within a few miles of the frontier between the United States and Mexico is the sole sheltered port available for shipping between San Francisco and the mouth of the Gulf of California Two or three other ships which were like the Northampton engaged in shipping hides lay near her A sickening odor rose from the half cured skins as they were swung up from boats alongside and lowered into the hold and in spite of the sharp orders of the mates the crew worked slowly and listlessly The Golden Canyon G.
