Fiction John Wade, 2019-01-30 A detailed look at the British world of science fiction in the 1950s John Wade grew up in the 1950s a decade that has since been dubbed the golden age of science fiction It was a wonderful decade for the genre but not so great for young fans With early television broadcasts being advertised for the first time as unsuitable for children and the inescapable barrier of the X certificate in the cinema barring anyone under the age of sixteen the author had only the radio to fall back on and that turned out to be more fertile for the budding SF fan than might otherwise have been thought Which is probably why as he grew older rediscovering those old TV broadcasts and films that had been out of bounds when he was a kid took on a lure that soon became an obsession For him the super accuracy and amazing technical quality of today's science fiction films pale into insignificance beside the radio early TV and B picture films about people who built rockets in their back gardens and flew them to lost planets or tales of aliens who wanted to take over if not our entire world then at least our bodies This book is a personal account of John Wade's fascination with the genre across all the entertainment media in which it appeared the sort of stuff he reveled in as a young boy and still enjoys today Not only a well researched book grounded in hundreds of sources but also an unmistakable labor of love New York Journal of Books The Worst We Can

Find Dale Sherman, 2023-06-15 Had you tuned in to the small television station KTMA on Thanksgiving Day 1988 you would have been one of the few witnesses to pop culture history being made On that day viewers in and around St Paul Minnesota were treated to a genuine oddity in which a man and his robots trapped within a defiantly DIY sci fi set cracked jokes while watching a terrible movie It was a cockeyed twist on the local TV programs of the past in which a host would introduce old cheaply licensed films And though its origins may have been inauspicious Mystery Science Theater 3000 captured the spirit of what had been a beloved pastime for generations of wags wiseacres and smartalecks and would soon go on to inspire countless more The Worst We Can Find is a comprehensive history of and guide to MST3K and its various offshoots including Rifftrax Cinematic Titanic and The Mads Are Back whose lean crew of writers performers and puppeteers have now been making fun of movies for over thirty years It investigates how riffing of films evolved recounts the history of these programs and considers how a practice guaranteed to annoy real life fellow moviegoers grew into such a beloved long lasting franchise As author Dale Sherman explains creative heckling has been around forever but MST3K and its progeny managed to redirect that art into a style that was both affectionate and cutting winning the devotion of countless fans and aspiring riffers 3-D

Barefoot, 2017-11-21 This volume explores the lower reaches of cinema and its paradoxical appeal It looks at films from the B movies of the 1930s to the mockbusters of today and from the New York underground to the genre variations of Turkey's Yesilam studios and their YouTube afterlife Critically examining the reasons for studying denigrating or celebrating the detritus of film history it also considers the place of a trash aesthetic within and beyond 1960s American avant garde and looks at the cult of trash in the fanzines of the 1980s It draws on debates about cult paracinema and camp arguing that trash cinema exists in relation to these but brings with it a particular history that includes the ordinary as well as the strange Trash Cinema places these debates and the strand of self-proclaimed low culture that emerged in the second half of the twentieth century within a historical and international perspective It focuses on American cinema history but addresses Eurotrash reception as well as the related field of garbology examining trash cinema as a distinct but fluid category
