The Relationship Toolbox:

The Relationship Toolbox Kenny Brixey, 2018-10-26 It is said that relationships are hard This is true when our focus falls on all that is wrong and we adopt a fix it mentality Relationships need not be hard they simply require attention and intention towards the goodness and love that is available The Relationship Toolbox is a collection of resources designed to assist in creating empowering behaviors and beliefs that elevate and expand love With these resources we are encouraged to release behaviors that limit love and peace We can transform the situations where we once withheld love into opportunities where our authentic expression of love is abundant The Relationship Toolbox guides us to more fully open awareness to the goodness and truth of the relationship and from here we create opportunities to elevate and expand love and peace beyond our greatest desires When we expand our expression of love into the relationship we receive in abundance the love that is available always
