

Renaissance

The term Renaissance in French means rebirth or new beginnings. It was the period following the Middle Ages. It started in Florence, Italy, a place with a rich cultural history where wealthy citizens could support the arts and give commissions to artists on a big scale. The Medici family, (wool merchants, bankers) ruled Florence for 300 years, supported and commissioned artists for major projects. The artists in their turn drew inspiration from the classical period of ancient Greece and Rome. Characteristics of Renaissance include three dimensional perspective, classic realism, Humanist ideas (putting individual ideas forward) and new ideas in literature and music.
