The Cinematic Theater Babak A. Ebrahimian, 2004-08-06 Because of our film oriented culture the study of cinema's potential influence on the theater has become particularly relevant When applied to the stage and space of theater film theory and aesthetics open new possibilities heightening the theater's capacity to respond to and engage with contemporary culture Director Babak Ebrahimian examines and explores the similarities and differences between cinema and theater and in doing so defines a new theater form that uses film theories and aesthetics as its foundation The book begins by locating the need for cinematic theater in contemporary image based perceptions of the real and lays out the basic form and aesthetics that make up the cinematic theater To illustrate this approach Ebrahimian analyzes the work of major film directors including Sergei Eisenstein Federico Fellini Martin Scorsese and Orson Welles He also draws upon the perspectives of prominent contemporary theater directors and writers among them Richard Foreman Robert Wilson and Heiner Muller Bridging the gap between the two mediums The Cinematic Theater will be of interest to students and practitioners of both theater and film Illustrated with photos New Horizon, 1983 American Theatre, 1985 Educational Film Magazine, 1921

Images of the Present Time Alain Badiou, 2023-01-31 Finalist 2024 Translation Prize Nonfiction French American Foundation Alain Badiou began the twenty first century by considering the relationship between philosophy and notions of the present In this period of his ongoing annual lecture series the acclaimed philosopher took up the existential problem of how to be contemporary with one's own time that is how to not simply inhabit a passing moment but bring a real present into existence Images of the Present Time presents nearly three years of Badiou's seminars held from 2001 to 2004 partly against the backdrop of the war in Iraq Given while Badiou was writing Logics of Worlds the second of the three volumes of Being and Event these lectures address some of the same questions of existence in a particular world in a more personal and conversational tone with reference to literature philosophy and contemporary politics and culture He proposes a new concept of living in a real present as the twisting together of something from the past and something of the future Featuring some of the philosopher s most inspiring and approachable work Images of the Present Time is an important book for all readers interested in the practical as well as conceptual possibilities of Badiou s thought Starfall Lars Kleberg,1997 An imaginative tour de force Starfall consists of three dramatic dialogues among real people in imagined settings Anchoring each of the dialogues is the great Russian film director and theoretician Sergei Eisenstein whose artistic theories in all their formations and reformations run throughout the book illustrating the influences that affected the Soviet art world in the period between the two world wars In The Aquarians Eisenstein meets Bertolt Brecht in the first class compartment of a train heading from Berlin to Moscow in 1932 They spend the night discussing and arguing about everything from the use of Renaissance magic in art to some kind of Wagnerian Gesamtkunstwerk in which everything in art is connected The Sorcerer s Apprentices takes place at a meeting held in Moscow on April 14 1935 on the occasion of performances given during a visit by a noted Chinese actor Mei Lan Fang and his troupe the prime representatives of early twentieth century classical Chinese theater Conceived as a series of speeches by noted members of the Soviet theater and film circles Eisenstein again The Sorcerer s Apprentices contrasts the Russian theater with that of the Chinese the German antifascist emigre theater of Brecht and Erwin Piscator and even the avant garde British drama as represented by Gordon Craig Ash Wednesday has Eisenstein engaged in a dialogue with Mikhail Bakhtin They speak about German culture in particular Eisenstein s desire to stage Wagner s The Valkyrie which Bakhtin appears to object to on both political and artistic grounds the influence of astrology in Soviet literary circles and jazz music as a symbol of pure art Filled with references familiar and arcane biographical and political steeped in literary history from the mid nineteenth century to the mid twentieth and peppered with references to the writings of such dissimilar thinkers as Giordano Bruno Rabelais Goethe and Antonin Artaud Starfall will appeal to all readers interested in the developments of twentieth century dramatic art Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1929 Theater Week ,1990 Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People ,1917 The Literary Digest International Book Review Clifford Smyth,1923 The Smart Set ,1916
