Their Crimes:

Cognition and Crime Benoit Leclerc, Richard Wortley, 2013-08-15 The rational choice perspective developed by Cornish and Clarke in 1986 provides criminologists with a valuable and practical framework for purposes of crime control and prevention More than twenty five years later Cognition and Crime pushes the boundaries of this field of research by bringing together international leading or emerging researchers in this area of script analysis into a single volume for the first time It also presents a series of original contributions on offender decision making during crime and crime script analysis as well as offering a critical perspective of what could be achieved in the future to further help develop this field of research for prevention purposes In addition each empirical chapter treats a specific and important form of crime such as stalking violence drug dealing human trafficking for sexual exploitation child sexual abuse and transnational illegal market of endangered species Academics and students from various backgrounds and interested in investigating and preventing crime will benefit from this book as it applies crime script analysis and discusses new and future developments in regards to this approach and the rational choice perspective This volume will be of particular relevance for practitioners such as police officers and crime investigators

The Handbook of Crime and Punishment Michael Tonry, 2000-11-09 Crime is one of the most significant political issues in contemporary American society Crime control statistics and punishment policies are subjects of constant partisan debate while the media presents sensationalized stories of criminal activity and over crowded prisons In the highly politicized arena of crime and justice empirical data and reasoned analysis are often overlook or ignored The Handbook of Crime and Punishment however provides a comprehensive overview of criminal justice criminology and crime control policy thus enabling a fundamental understanding of crime and punishment essential to an informed public Expansive in its coverage the Handbook presents materials on crime and punishment trends as well as timely policy issues The latest research on the demography of crime race gender drug use is included and weighty current problems organized crime white collar crime family violence sex offenders youth gangs drug abuse policy are examined Processes and institutions that deal with accused and convicted criminals and techniques of punishment are also examined While some articles emphasize American research findings and developments others incorporate international research and offer a comparative perspective from other English speaking countries and Western Europe Editor Michael Tonry a leading scholar of criminology introduces the 28 articles in the volume each contributed by an expert in the field Designed for a wide audience The Handbook is encyclopedic in its range and depth of content yet is written in an accessible style The most inclusive and authoritative work on the topic to be found in one volume this book will appeal to those interested in the study of crime and its causes effects trends and institutions those interested in the forms and philosophies of punishment and those interested in crime control

Immigration and crime United States. Immigration Commission (1907-1910), 1911

Media and Crime in the U.S. Yvonne Jewkes, Travis Linnemann, 2017-07-27 The rise of mobile and social media means that everyday crime

news is now more immediate more visual and more democratically produced than ever Offering new and innovative ways of understanding the relationship between media and crime Media and Crime in the U S critically examines the influence of media coverage of crimes on culture and identity in the United States and across the globe With comprehensive coverage of the theories research and key issues acclaimed author Yvonne Jewkes and award winning professor Travis Linnemann have come together to shed light on some of the most troubling questions surrounding media and crime today The Bulletin of the National Metal Trades Association ,1904 The Brotherhood of Thieves Stephen Symonds Foster,1886 The Cosmopolitan ,1900 The Nation ,1897 Framing Impunity in the Context of State Crime Sanya Karakas,2024-08-20 This book introduces a new conceptual framework for impunity within state crime theory and uses Turkish state criminality against Kurds between 1990 and 2000 as a case study It develops an understanding of impunity that goes beyond viewing the state solely as an actor facilitator or denier of crime It argues for an expanded definition of state crime to encompass criminal acts and processes undertaken by states including impunity Building on field research case analysis and interviews this book digs deep into the mechanics of impunity and ways in which the Turkish state has evaded punishment for its criminal acts In doing so Framing Impunity in the Context of State Crime uncovers a close connection between the crimes of the government and the impunity which allowed those crimes to flourish It demonstrates that state violence and impunity are endemic in the structural design of the Turkish state and serve to further both the state goals of ethnic and religious assimilation and the subsequent persecution of those who refused to be assimilated into the new state construction The book uses Stanley Cohen s work on states of denial techniques to examine how states justify their illegal acts in order to deny and or to evade responsibility for their crimes Cohen s work on denial at the organisational level is central to the question of impunity because as a form of state crime impunity involves various state institutions or actors representing the very state machinery deployed to conceal and deny state criminality An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to law students scholars researchers NGOs and civil society organisations It will have broader applicability beyond the case study of Turkey and will be valuable to academics and policymakers worldwide who focus on the intersection of state crime and impunity Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1913 Politics and Religion in the Days of Augustine Edward Frank Humphrey,1912 Real and Imaginary Effects of Intemperance Gallus Thomann,1884 The Complete Writings of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow ; with Portraits, Illustrations and Facsimiles Henry Wadsworth Longfellow,1904 The Apocryphal Books ,1889 Burke, Select Works: Four letters on the proposals for peace with the regicide Directory of France. new ed., rev. 1904 Edmund Burke,1904 Christian Civilizations George Shelley Hughes,1924 The Public ,1913 Chamber's Cyclopædia of English Literature Robert Chambers,1902 The Fortnightly Review ,1873 Methodist Magazine and Quarterly Review ,1920
