The Concept of the Individual in the Thought of Karl Marx Zhi Li,2023 This book reconstructs the concept of the individual in Marx as the key to a fresh interpretation of Marxian philosophy Marx moved from an examination of the contingency and indeterminacy of individual consciousness in his early years to a critique of the atomistic individual and materialised social relations in his later years His thought proposes that real individuals are the basis for an understanding of human society that promotes the emancipation of humankind Marx s philosophy has often been misunderstood as lacking a concept of the individual In China this misunderstanding not only relates to cultural and linguistic particularities the word individual is seldom used in Chinese but also relates to a misleading view of socialism and communism This book helps remedy this misunderstanding and draws important comparisons and contrasts between Marx s concept of the individual with that of liberalism and between Western and Eastern Marxism Zhi Li works at School of Philosophy Wuhan University China and was previously Visiting Scholar at KU Leuven Belgium and University of Bristol UK His previous publications include The Concept of the Individual in the Thought of Karl Marx 2014 and The Ethical Critique Karl Marx and Present World 2022
