Breakthroughs National Writing Project (U.S.), 2002 Breakthroughs makes a unique contribution to the discussion of teaching writing. The text takes a step back from general concepts and practical lessons to ask Where do good teaching ideas come from. In twenty five essays National Writing Project teachers take readers on the journey that led them to ask and answer such questions as How can students find the stories that advance their ideas in essays and How can students be prodded to continue to work beyond a first draft. Some of these ideas were inspired by talking with colleagues. Others sprang from desperation. But in all cases the writers detail the practical application of their breakthroughs describing not only their successes but also their glitches. While Breakthroughs reminds readers of where teaching ideas come from it also provides nuts and bolts advice in areas of common concern. How do we generate student writing. What strategies can we use to help students with problems of form and style. How can students find a real audience. Can we find fresh ways to respond to and evaluate student work. How can we promote writing in all subject areas. Readers of Breakthroughs will be rewarded with many ideas they can bring into their classroom but also like the authors represented in this collection they will be inspired to create fresh classroom solutions.

In Solo Time Solo Act and Burton's Solo featuring Boston's favorite bar owner and sleuth. In Solo Time Elder Darrow uses the last of his trust fund money to buy the Esposito a bucket of blood bar in Boston. But before he can turn the place around the body of a jazz guitar player shows up on the club's stage. When Elder's drinking partner turns up dead after being suspected of the murder he's drawn into the unraveling of a political conspiracy. Solo Act When Elder hears that his ex lover jazz singer Alison Somers has killed herself in New York he encounters a beautiful collector of jazz memorabilia a Native American gangster with aspirations to management and a bomb throwing piano player while trying to uncover the real story. Burton's Solo Elder Darrow's best friend homicide detective Dan Burton becomes the prime suspect in the murder of a clothing designer. Elder hides him in the old family place in New Hampshire while they expose an evil scheme by which illegal immigrants were effectively enslaved to work in sweat shops and prove Burton's innocence. Praise for Richard Cass and the Elder Darrow Mysteries. Richard Cass writes the kind of mysteries I first fell in love with clever twisty and brimming with characters as colorful as they are well drawn. Chris Holm Anthony Award winning
