Three Philosophers:

Bellini, Giorgione, Titian, and the Renaissance of Venetian Painting David Alan Brown, Sylvia Ferino-Pagden, Jaynie Anderson, Deborah Howard, Kunsthistorisches Museum (Vienne), National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Kunsthistorisches Museum (Wenen), 2006-01-01 Presents a survey of sixty Venetian Renaissance paintings of the calibre of Bellini and Titian's Feast of the Gods in Washington and Giorgione's Laura and Three Philosophers in Vienna

Three Philosophers Gertrude Elizabeth Margaret Anscombe, Peter Thomas Geach, 1961 Venice and the Islamic World, 828-1797 Institut du Monde Arabe (Paris), 2007-01-01 From 828 when Venetian merchants carried home from Alexandria the stolen relics of St Mark to the fall of the Venetian Republic to Napoleon in 1797 the visual arts in Venice were dramatically influenced by Islamic art Because of its strategic location on the Mediterranean Venice had long imported objects from the Near East through channels of trade and it flourished during this particular period as a commercial political and diplomatic hub This monumental book examines Venice's rise as the bazaar of Europe and how and why the city absorbed artistic and cultural ideas that originated in the Islamic world Venice and the Islamic World 828 1797 features a wide range of fascinating images and objects including paintings and drawings by familiar Venetian artists such as Bellini Carpaccio and Tiepolo beautiful Persian and Ottoman miniatures and inlaid metalwork ceramics lacquer ware gilded and enameled glass textiles and carpets made in the Serene Republic and the Mamluk Ottoman and Safavid Empires Together these exquisite objects illuminate the ways Islamic art inspired Venetian artists while also highlighting Venice's own views toward its neighboring region Fascinating essays by distinguished scholars and conservators offer new historical and technical insights into this unique artistic relationship between East and West Three Philosophers Gertrude Elizabeth Margaret Anscombe, Peter Thomas Geach, 1961 Deleuze, Bergson, Merleau-Ponty Dorothea E. Olkowski, 2021-09-07 Deleuze Bergson Merleau Ponty The Logic and Pragmatics of Creation Affective Life and Perception offers the only full length examination of the relationships between Deleuze Bergson and Merleau Ponty Henri Bergson 1859 1941 Maurice Merleau Ponty 1908 1961 and Gilles Deleuze 1925 1995 succeeded one another as leading voices in French philosophy over a span of 136 years Their relationship to one another's work involved far more than their overlapping lifetimes Bergson became both the source of philosophical insight and a focus of criticism for Merleau Ponty and Deleuze Deleuze criticized Merleau Ponty's phenomenology as well as his interest in cognitive and natural science Author Dorothea Olkowski points out that each of these philosophers situated their thought in relation to their understandings of crucial developments and theories taken up in the history and philosophy of science and this has been difficult for Continental philosophy to grasp She articulates the differences between these philosophers with respect to their disparate approaches to the physical sciences and with how their views of science function in relation to their larger philosophical projects In Deleuze Bergson Merleau Ponty Olkowski examines the critical areas of the structure of time and memory the structure of consciousness and the question of humans relation to nature She reveals that these philosophers are working from inside one another s ideas and are making strong claims about time consciousness reality and their effects on humanity that converge and diverge The result is a clearer picture of the intertwined workings of Continental philosophy and its fundamental engagement with the sciences

Brunelleschi's Egg Mary D. Garrard,2010 Garrard one of a small handful of truly distinguished feminist art historians presents a detailed and visually convincing account of the relationship between nature and art in all its fraught and gendered cultural meaning from antiquity on Brunelleschi s Egg constitutes an exemplary feat of interdisciplinary study that requires no specialized theoretical baggage to follow and emulate Mieke Bal author of Of What One Cannot Speak Doris Salcedo s Political Art Mary Garrard s discerning eye and deep knowledge of Renaissance art informs this fascinating book She offers a sophisticated exploration of a rich artistic conversation on the relationship of nature and art describing the central role of gender in structuring artists complex and changing attitudes toward nature Brunelleschi s Egg is so much more than a history of style it maps the changing mindsets of Renaissance society in the several centuries during which scientific developments gradually seized masculine authority relegating both art and nature to mastered femininity This book provides new perspective on Italian Renaissance masterworks it will be central to future discussion of Renaissance art Margaret R Miles author of A Complex Delight The Secularization of the Breast 1350 1750 In this sweeping study the magnum opus of one of feminist art history s founding mothers Mary Garrard extends the gendered critique of art into the realms of philosophy and science psychology and myth Her eloquently prophetic and richly detailed synthesis chronicles western culture s increasing feminization of nature and art and its parallel masculinization of the human mind both male and female as a Renaissance tragedy on an epic scale The book is a must read for historians of the early modern period with a theme also of urgent contemporary concern James M Saslow author of Pictures and Passions A History of Homosexuality and Art A completely new and thoroughly convincing way of looking at the major monuments of the Italian Renaissance The ideas in Brunelleschi s Egg are so compelling that it is hard to imagine a reader who would not be drawn into the analysis Jacqueline Marie Musacchio author of Art Marriage and Family in the Italian Renaissance Palace Garrard offers an unprecedented perspective on an amazing plethora of seminal works Written beautifully Brunelleschi s Egg is nothing but exemplary Yael Even University of Missouri St Louis
