Three Artists Three Women:

Three Artists (three Women) Anne Middleton Wagner, 1996 Art historian Wagner looks at the imagery and careers of three important figures in the history of twentieth century art Eva Hesse Lee Krasner and Georgia O Keeffe relating their work to three decisive moments in the history of American modernism the avant garde of the 1920s the New York School of the 1940s and 1950s and the modernist redefinition undertaken in the 1960s Their artistic contributions were invaluable Wagner demonstrates as well as hard won She also shows that the fact that these artists were women the main element linking the three is as much the index of difference among their art and experience as it is a passkey to what they share From publisher description

Three Artists (three Women); Modern and the Art of Hesse, Krasner, and O'Keeffe Anne Middleton Wagner, 1996

Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson, Richard Shiff, 2010-03-15

Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp's Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field's methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins's To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book's scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K Bhabha Suzanne Preston Blier Michael Camille David Carrier Craig Clunas Whitney Davis Jas Elsner Ivan Gaskell Ann Gibson Charles Harrison James D Herbert Amelia Jones Wolfgang Kemp Joseph Leo Koerner Patricia Leighton Paul Mattick Jr Richard Meyer W J T Mitchell Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin William Pietz Alex Potts Donald Preziosi Lisbet Rausing Richard Shiff Terry Smith Kristine Stiles David Summers Paul Wood James E Young

The Present Prospects of Social Art History Robert Slifkin, Anthony E. Grudin, 2021-03-25 The Present Prospects of Social Art History represents a major reconsideration of how art historians analyze works of art and the role that historical factors both those at the moment when the work was created and when the historian addresses the objects at hand play in informing their interpretations Featuring the work of some of the discipline s leading scholars the volume contains a collection of essays that consider the advantages limitations and specific challenges of seeing works of art primarily through a historical perspective The assembled texts along with an introduction by the co editors demonstrate an array of possible methodological approaches that acknowledge the crucial role of history in the creation reception and exhibition of works of art

Art Journal ,1998 Three Women Artists Amy Von Lintel,Bonnie Roos,2022 Offering a fresh perspective on the influence of the American southwest and particularly West Texas on the New York art world of the 1950s Three Women Artists Expanding Abstract Expressionism in the American West aims to establish the significance of itinerant teaching and western travel as a strategic choice for women artists associated with traditional centers of artistic authority and population in the eastern United States The book is focused on three artists Elaine de Kooning Jeanne Reynal and Louise Nevelson In their travels to and work in the High Plains they were inspired to innovate their abstract styles and introduce new critical dialogues through their work These women traveled west for the same reason artists often travel to new places they found paid work markets patrons and friends This Middle American context offers us a decentered modernism demanding that we look beyond our received truths about Abstract Expressionism Authors Amy Von Lintel and Bonnie Roos demonstrate that these women s New York avant garde abstract styles were attractive to Panhandle area ranchers bankers and aspiring art students Perhaps as importantly they show that these artists aesthetics evolved in light of their regional experiences Offering their work as a supplement and corrective to the frameworks of patriarchal East Coast ethnocentrism Von Lintel and Roos make the case for Texas as influential in the national art scene of the latter half of the twentieth century
