Three Women A Novel:

Going Too Far Robin Morgan, 2014-11-11 The personal papers of one of feminism's most passionate leaders with a new preface by the author As an activist for social justice Robin Morgan has acquired a reputation for strong convictions and a life affirming way of expressing them through writing Nowhere is this more evident than in Going Too Far which takes us behind the scenes in Morgan's life and in the women's movement until 1977 We watch the development of an organizer who is a complex thinker while Morgan evolves as a mother leader writer and activist Morgan's keen eye is trained on all aspects of modern feminism and this is reflected in the juxtaposition of the journal entries and letters of her personal life with the essays and polemics that shape her public persona Her opinions on marriage love religion pornography and art are as utterly fresh and timely today as they were decades ago Her growing wisdom and depth of perception are apparent in the book's progression and her last chapters focused on what she terms the metaphysics of feminism will change a reader's world view for the better and forever

Radical Feminism Barbara A. Crow, 2000-02 Crow women's studies U of Calgary attempts to retrieve the lost history of North American radical feminists a group to be distinguished from mainstream feminism by their critique of the entire structure of society in spite of anti feminist attempts to label all feminists radical She presents a collection of essays manifestos position papers and newsletters drawn mainly from the Lesbian Herstory Archives the Redstockings Archives and the Barnard College Special Collections thus limiting the material to the East Coast covering the years 1967 to 1975 Most of the documents are organized topically under the headings lesbianism heterosexuality children race and class Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Contemporary American Women Fiction Writers Laurie Champion, Rhonda Austin, 2002-11-30 American women writers have long been creating an extraordinarily diverse and vital body of fiction particularly in the decades since World War II Recent authors have benefited from the struggles of their predecessors who broke through barriers that denied women opportunities for self expression This reference highlights American women writers who continue to build upon the formerly male dominated canon Included are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 60 American women writers of diverse ethnicity who wrote or published their most significant fiction after World War II Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes L DBLA brief biography L DBLA discussion of major works and themes DBLA survey of the writer's critical reception L DBLA bibliography of primary and secondary sources

The Academy, 1898 The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen s Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women s novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women s fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women s fiction
