Through Alien Eyes:

Through Alien Eyes Amy Thomson, 2000 The bestselling author of Virtual Girl pens an unusually thoughtful novel of first contact Publishers Weekly in which aliens land on Earth and struggle to survive in a land with different bodies customs and languages

Through Alien Eyes Wesley H. Bateman, 2001-04-01 The accounts given by extraterrestrials in this volume are about events that occurred in our solar system many millions of years ago In that ancient time the solar system consisted of four planets and four radiar systems that orbited the central sun The four planets of the solar system are known today as Venus Earth Mars and a now totally shattered world that was called Maldec The term radiar applies to the astronomical bodies we presently call Jupiter Saturn Uranus and Neptune The original satellites of these radiars are generally called moons by Earth astronomers but the extraterrestrials prefer to call them planetoids This book reflects the personal views of a number of different types of extraterrestrials regarding the state of the local solar system and the state of the Earth

Through Alien Eyes Karsten Hamre, 2014-12-20 The photos in this volume was shot in various locations across Europe and the audio part associated with this publication is sort of an audio documentation of the impressions I ve had in these places and the music is inspired by what you can hear around you though not meant as an exact documentation of what I heard at certain times but merely as a source of inspiration My aim has never been to photograph the most known sites in the places I have been to as I have always been more interested in wandering about and photographing things I happen to stumble upon things that may be hidden to some as they are not seen instantly This is also why I chose the title Through Alien Eyes as I have been the alien in these places I have been the explorer and this is your chance to participate in the journey I have taken so far

Through Alien Eyes Volume X Karsten Hamre, 2021-11-25 The photos in this volume were taken on various locations all across Europe Through Alien Eyes is an ongoing art project by Karsten Hamre

Stitch, Unstitch Kristin Grogan, 2025-08-26 The labor of literature is often thought of as a specialized craft distinct from everyday work In Stitch Unstitch Kristin Grogan traces an alternative vision of writing and the writer arguing that modernist poetry was deeply shaped by ordinary labor and the people who performed it This relationship provoked powerful political and aesthetic experiments and allowed modernist poets to imagine ways of life beyond the demand to earn a living Poetic form Grogan shows offers ways to reflect on the meaning and worth of labor particularly types of gendered labor that are typically unseen and undervalued Her fine grained readings locate modernist poetry within sites of social reproduction factory work craft labor and other forms of manual labor placing literary texts alongside objects such as constructivist posters and set design household notes and homemade books Grogan considers Ezra Pound s ideology of craft and artisanal labor Lola Ridge s immersion in the New York garment industry Langston Hughes s encounter with Soviet workers theater Gertrude Stein s gendered and queer domestic labors and Lorine Niedecker s employment as a hospital cleaner Blending Marxist and feminist theory with attentive close readings

Stitch Unstitch is a revelatory materialist account of the values of poetry Transatlantic Avant-Gardes Eric B White, 2013-03-01 Provides an alternative account of the modernist transatlantic Transatlantic Avant Gardes offers a revisionary account of the evolution of twentieth century modernism Complimenting recent studies of modernist expatriates Eric White explores new points of contact between European and American avant gardes to place located figures such as William Carlos Williams Marianne Moore Wallace Stevens Jean Toomer and Alfred Kreymborg back into the global design of literary modernism Focusing on artist run little magazines including Others Contact The Little Review Blast The Dial Fire and Pagan and selected fine press publications and mainstream periodicals White also reconsiders the boundaries that traditionally divide modernist literature into exile and localist or regionalist and cosmopolitan factions Thus the book proposes a version of localist modernism that prioritises issues of geographic and textual location to deliver a networked approach to American modernism in the transatlantic context Combining literary historical textual and cultural criticism Transatlantic Avant Gardes provides a new reading of the specialised literary networks that interrogated the relationship between geographic place textual space and national identity in the modernist transatlantic The Classical Bulletin, 1928 The Collected Short Works, 1920-1954 Bess Streeter Aldrich, 1999-01-01 During the first half of the twentieth century Bess Streeter Aldrich became one of the most highly paid and widely read American authors of her time Among the most noteworthy of frontier writers Aldrich published her short work in such leading magazines as Cosmopolitan Colliers Ladies Home Journal Good Housekeeping and the Saturday Evening Post Her most famous novel A Lantern in Her Hand has remained a favorite since it was first published in 1928 All of her subsequent novels were also bestsellers Aldrich's portrayals of pioneers farm people and small town traders their spirit and enterprise won the admiration of the nation Unlike such contemporaries as Sinclair Lewis and Hamlin Garland Aldrich saw the better side of Main Street Honesty hard work friendship and family life are constant themes in her writings This second volume of The Collected Short Works brings together over thirty of Aldrich's short stories and essays published between 1920 and 1954 the year of her death With this collection Aldrich's admirers have ready access to many hard to find works Some of the stories appear here for the first time since their original publication The Publishers Weekly, 1916 Country by the Sea H.
