Valuing Pop Music Institutions Values And Economics:

Popmuziek Waarden Wilfred Dolfsma,1999 Global Political Economy and the Wealth of Nations Phillip Anthony O'Hara,2004 Documents the major processes performance institutions problems and policies associated with global political economy This book present an analysis of the changing distribution and production of wealth throughout the world the global technological revolution and a special study of Asia and Eastern Europe in the world system Listening to Popular Music, Or, How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love Led Zeppelin Theodore Gracyk,2007 Publisher description Organised Crime and Vulnerability of Economic Sectors Tom Beken,2005 The influence of organised crime on business activities enterprises and economic sectors is a matter of concern for many policy makers across the world As a profit driven criminal activity organised crime operates in an environment which is not limited to the underworld economy alone Assessments of the threat posed by organised crime and strategic preventive actions to tackle this phenomenon require an understanding of the vulnerable spots in the legal economy that are or might be exploited by crime This book proposes a new methodology to scan economic sectors on their vulnerability to organised crime and provides vulnerability profiles of the transport and the music sector in Europe to which the method has been tested in a case study The developed methodological tool and the vulnerability profiles of both sectors are intended as a guide for actions and initiatives to be taken by governments law enforcement bodies or economic sectors The Changing Social Economy of Art Hans Abbing,2019-09-14 Is art for everybody Why do art lovers attach so much value to authenticity autonomy and authorship Why did the arts become so serious in the first place Why do many artists reject commerce and cultural entrepreneurship Crucially are any of the answers to these questions currently changing Hans Abbing is uniquely placed to answer such questions and drawing on his experiences as an economist and sociologist as well as a professional artist in this volume he addresses them head on In order to investigate changes in the social economy of the arts Abbing compares developments in the established arts with those in the popular arts and proceeds to outline key ways that the former can learn from the latter by lowering the cost of production fostering innovation and becoming less exclusive These assertions are contextualized with analysis of the separation between serious art and entertainment in the nineteenth century lending credence to the idea that government supported art worlds have promoted the exclusion of various social groups Abbing outlines how this is presently changing and why while the established arts have become less exclusive they are not yet for everybody Made in the Low Countries Lutgard Mutsaers,Gert Keunen,2017-10-12 Made in the Low Countries Studies in Popular Music serves as a comprehensive and thorough introduction to the history sociology and musicology of twentieth and twenty first century popular music of the Dutch speaking region comprising the Netherlands and Flanders as a region of federal Belgium The volume consists of essays by leading scholars and publicists in this field and covers the major issues genres and contexts of popular music Each essay provides adequate context so readers understand why the issue or genre

under discussion is of lasting significance to this transnational region The book first presents a general description of the history and background of popular music made in the region followed by essays that are organized into four thematic sections I Framing and Facilitating II Creation and Curation III Close Encounters IV Changes and Choices

Measuring the Value of Culture Jeanette D. Snowball, 2007-10-25 Interest in and acknowledgement of the value of culture and cultural goods is increasing world wide So too is interest in valuing the arts so that efficient funding decisions can be made by government and private sponsors Measuring the Value of Culture documents the use of methods used to put a price on cultural goods including theatre heritage cultural events like arts festivals museums archaeological sites and libraries The methods discussed include economic impact studies which use market data as well as non market valuation techniques like willingness to pay methods and the newer choice experiments In addition advances in more qualitative valuation methods are considered The book aims to give practitioners a practical guide to conducting such valuation studies while also providing potential funders with a means of evaluating the results The theoretical background of the various methods their potential problems and the kind of information they can provide is also discussed
