Lancaster (Mass.)

Willard Jerhom:

Willard Jerhom J. S. Horne, 2003-04-01 The story has six episodes and they vary broadly in subject matter The first describes Jerhom's ideas of love death music and his fundamental concept of government The second is involved in a family dispute in which a death is used as one part of the solution Subsequently Jerhom and his friend Victor discuss predestination and evolution In the third episode we are made to believe that a man is bent on vengeance after his mother in law took custody of his daughter but events unfold in a peculiar way In the fourth episode a Judge an entrepreneur and a social worker become involved in a strange love triangle In the fifth two brothers are engaged in an inheritance dispute in which the earthly elements play a vital role in resolving the differences Finally the sixth episode deals with several families whose ideas of what home life should be are radically different each strange to the others but individually acceptable to themselves Even though the entire story touches on many of the more disagreeable features of life it has a family quality which is wholesome and acceptable to anyone who is educated enough to read it Written in an exalted style the story has its share of mystery and romance
