of the many writers he had known One of the most striking features of his career is his close involvement with so many of the major international literary groupings of his time In the South East of England at the fin de siècle he collaborated for a decade with Joseph Conrad and befriended Henry James and H G Wells In Edwardian London he founded the English Review publishing these writers alongside his new discoveries Ezra Pound D H Lawrence and Wyndham Lewis After the war he moved to France founding the transatlantic review in Paris taking on Hemingway as a sub editor discovering another generation of Modernists such as Jean Rhys and Basil Bunting and publishing them alongside Joyce and Gertrude Stein He spent more time in America from the later 1920s spending time with Southern Agrarians and poets such as William Carlos Williams Charles Olson and Robert Lowell He was always a tireless promoter of younger writers reading manuscripts and recommending them to publishers This book takes Ford s literary contacts to include such creative friendships editorial involvements and influential biographical encounters and they form the most substantial central section on Contemporaries and Confreres covering figures like Proust Carlos Williams Rebecca West Herbert Read and Hemingway But it also explores contacts with literary texts The first section on Predecessors considers the impact of Ford s reading of Trollope George Eliot and Turgenev The final section discusses Successors writers such as Graham Greene Burgess and A S Byatt whose literary contacts with Ford have been as his admiring readers and eloquent critics Ford has been described as a writer s writer This volume reveals how true that has been and in how many ways as it sheds new light on his relationships with other writers both familiar and surprising It includes two pieces published here for the first time one by Ford himself on Turgenev the other a memoir about Ford by his contemporary Marie Belloc Lowndes the sister of Hilaire Belloc

How Did Poetry Survive? John Timberman Newcomb,2012-03-20 How Did Poetry Survive traces the emergence of modern American poetry at the turn of the nineteenth century American poetry had stalled a small group of recently deceased New England poets still held sway and few outlets existed for living poets However the United States quickly accelerating urbanization in the early twentieth century opened new opportunities as it allowed the rise of publications focused on promoting the work of living writers of all kinds The urban scene also influenced the work of poets shifting away from traditional subjects and forms to reflect the rise of buildings and the increasingly busy bustle of the city Change was everywhere new forms of architecture and transportation new immigrants new professions new tastes new worries This urbanized world called for a new poetry and a group of new magazines entirely or chiefly devoted to exploring modern themes and forms led the way Avant garde little magazines succeeded not by ignoring or rejecting the busy commercial world that surrounded them but by adapting its technologies of production and strategies of marketing for their own purposes
