Mystery and Dark Humor in Film Adaptations of Roald Dahl's "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" Amelie Meyer, 2020-03-25 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 10 University of Göttingen Philosophische Fakultät course Theorizing Film Remakes language English abstract Roald Dahl's 1964 novel Charlie and the Chocolate Factory has been voted the most popular children's book of all time The sometimes violently imposed morality and thereby suitability for children has been a matter of debate amongst disapproving critics for a long time Others simply see Charlie and the Chocolate Factory as a cautionary tale depicting children's errors ought to be prevented It did not take long for the first attempt to adapt Dahl's tale to the big screen In 1971 Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory directed by Mel Stuart and starring Gene Wilder as Wonka opened in theaters Although lacking immediate success the children's musical has evolved into a cult classic over the years In 2005 director Tim Burton took his turn transforming the novel into a movie choosing Johnny Depp for the role as Wonka Whereas the first movie is said to win over audiences with Gene Wilder's twinkling air of mystery Burton's movie is regarded as much darker capturing the novel's mood due to the affinity with the Gothic as well as fairytale motifs which Dahl and Burton share When examining both movies with regard to Dahl's source material it is advisable to employ strategic measures of adaptation theories This paper will attempt to do so and focuses on the interpretation of the character of Wonka especially concerning his darker side in both films The following thesis will then be examined The joyful and fantastic world described in Dahl's novel has an underlying sinister and mysterious side to it and is associated with the character of Willy Wonka and the setting of his chocolate factory
