Wind Master Cherry The Wind:

The Wind, Master Cherry, the Wind Larissa Szporluk, 2003 Haunting and spare The Wind Master Cherry The Wind is obsessed with fate's fickle nature Propelled by internal rhyme these lyric poems draw on fairy tales and fables stories from the Bible and from Carlo Collodi's Pinocchio their characters blown hither and thither by mythic winds but inevitably toward an awareness of mortality Inside the Dog Fish Wide as the church the sea the cavern hard as a rock a tree a geyser tight as the spot of birth hot as the furnace serpent witch plain as the ego primitive tomb loose as a swallow's whirling torso fiery vertebra madre terribile mother of agony atony urge providing a passage a sabbath excuse symbol of charm gone darkly sour emotional windbag pricked by the light of the luna cornuta spitting up trinkets and bottles of rum and pages of books and chunks of men Mark Strand describes Edward Hopper's work as being informed by two imperatives one that urges us to continue and the other that compels us to stay Such is the experience of reading The Wind Master Cherry The Wind Larissa Szporluk's demanding and brilliant new book we are both urged forward and held back by its mysterious intellection Szporluk's work is about meaning what can be known and what cannot be what can be divulged and what must be withheld The Wind Master Cherry The Wind is fraught with such taut pleasures This is poetry both luscious and rigorous Lynn Emanuel

Goest Cole Swensen, 2016-05-30 Treating subjects from landscape to sculpture to a 19th century technical encyclopedia the poet is fascinated with light glass mirrors flame ice mercury things transparent evanescent impossible to grasp Likewise Swensen's lyrics which with elliptical phrasing and play between visual and aural change the act of seeing and reading offering glimpses of the spirit or ghost that enters a poem where the rational process breaks down From The Invention of Streetlights Certain cells it's said can generate light on their own There are organisms that could fit on the head of a pin and light entire rooms Throughout the Middle Ages you could hire a man on any corner with a torch to light your home were lamps made of horn and from above a loom of moving flares we watched Notre Dame seem small Now the streets stand still By 1890 it took a pound of powdered magnesium to photograph a midnight ball Goest sonorous with a hovering ghost which shimmers at the root of all things is a stunning meditation even initiation on the act of seeing proprioception and the alchemical properties of light as it exists naturally and inside the human realm of history lore invention and the whites of painting Light becomes the true mistress and possibly the underlying language of all invention Swensen's poetry documents a penetrating intellectus light of the mind by turns fragile incandescent transcendent Anne Waldman

Here, Bullet Brian Turner, 2014-09-01 A first person account of the Iraq War by a soldier poet winner of the 2005 Beatrice Hawley Award Adding his voice to the current debate about the US occupation of Iraq in poems written in the tradition of such poets as Wilfred Owen Yusef Komunyakaa Dien Cai Dau Bruce Weigl Song of Napalm and Alice James own Doug Anderson The Moon Reflected Fire Iraqi war veteran Brian Turner writes powerfully affecting poetry of witness exceptional for its beauty honesty and skill Based on Turner's yearlong tour in Iraq as an infantry team leader the poems offer gracefully rendered unflinching description but remarkably leave the reader to draw conclusions or moral lessons Here Bullet is a must read for anyone who cares about the war regardless of political affiliation Into Perfect Spheres Such Holes Are Pierced Catherine Barnett,2016-05-30 The family response to the sudden deaths of the speaker's two young nieces is at the center of Catherine Barnett's award winning first collection This series of elegies records the transit of grief observing with an unflinching eye how a singular traumatic event can permanently alter our understanding of time danger the material world and family Marked by clarity and restraint these lyric poems narrate a suspenseful wrenching story that explores the depths and limits of empathy Living Room Altar Except for the shirt pulled from the ocean except for her hands which keep folding the shirt except for her body which once held their bodies my sister wants everything back now If there were a god who could out of empty shells carried by waves to shore make amends If the ocean saved in a jar could keep from turning to salt She's hearing things bird calling to bird cat outside the door thorn of the blackberry against the trellis These heart breaking poems of an all too human life stay as absolute as the determined craft which made them There is finally neither irony nor simple despair in what they record Rather it is the far deeper response of witness of recognizing what must be acknowledged and of having the courage and the care to say so Robert Creeley In the Ghost-House Acquainted Kevin Goodan,2016-08-01 These soulful lyrics use allusive imagery and ecumenical diction to consider the pastoral as a life to inhabit not an artifact or idealized place to visit Here the specter of loss makes a world more precious notions of home and love must be ever evolving as colts are stillborn and pigeons slaughtered apple blossoms frozen in spring and dead lambs burned in diesel fire But these poems insist there is beauty in the soil and beauty in birth and death in birth and beauty in death as well And Upon the Earth No Wind Pigeons erupting from a barn Twenty three ewes stand at once ice chunks clinking in their wool I call soft call loud but the mare treads the snow blue Am I born to constant hazard Wood becomes more than wood simply by its burning Steam rises up from the land I call but do not move The moon rising shines even upon all things and I can't tell which is mare and what's weather Silence in eaves ever after It is rare to see a poet work so hard in the physical world serious farm labor and still catch a fleeting glimpse of the spirit Kevin Goodan does this convincingly because his language is so precise and his mind knows when to jump and when to stand still This is a remarkable book James Tate Kevin Goodan received his BA from the University of Montana and his MFA from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst His poems have been published in Ploughshares and other journals The Far Mosque Kazim Ali,2016-05-30 These gently fragmented narrative lyrics pursue enlightenment in long elegant yet plain spoken dark yet ecstatic lines Ali travels by water and by night seeking the Far Mosque and its overarching paradox that when God and Self are one an ascent into Heaven is a voyage within What We Talk about When We Talk about Creative Writing Anna Leahy,2016-07-27 Marking the tenth anniversary of the New Writing Viewpoints series this new book takes the concept of an edited collection to its extreme pushing the possibilities of scholarship and collaboration All authors in this book including those who contributed to Power and Identity in the Creative Writing Classroom which launched the series ten years ago are proof that creative writing matters that it can be rewarding over the long haul and that there exist many ways to do what we do as writers and as teachers This book captures a wide swathe of ideas on pedagogy on programs on the profession and on careers Catching the Wind - A Guide for Interpreting Ecclesiastes Dale McIntire,2020-07-28 Depressing Ungodly Skippable Each of these words have been used to describe Ecclesiastes Catching the Wind A Guide for Interpreting Ecclesiastes provides an interpretive companion for pastors Bible study teachers and leaders and Bible readers who are tired of skipping Ecclesiastes because either it is too hard to understand or its content appears too contrary to fit into preconceived notions of what and how God reveals Himself in His Word The message of Ecclesiastes often lost to readers and interpreters in the puzzling enigmatic details of the book becomes readily accessible when Ecclesiastes is considered in the whole Catching the Wind utilizes the structure of a modern social research report to reveal the divine intent of Ecclesiastes the divine truth that true meaning in human life comes in covenant relationship with the sovereign God and through no other means The guide provides instruction for developing a biblical hermeneutic an interpretation of the text of Ecclesiastes examples of personal application and abundant study questions for further investigation Poets & Writers ,2004 Kalliope ,2001 Matadora Sarah Verdes Gambito,2004 This vivid incisive feminist debut skewers Filipina American gender roles with its delightful sense of humor Book Review Digest ,1927 The Wind Before the Dawn Dell H. Munger,1912 Night of a Thousand Blossoms Frank Gaspar,2004 In these poems the poet restlessly inhabits the night finding it terrifying and beautiful searching for meaning in the yard the neighborhood the heavens and every wise book he owns These urban pastoral meditations employ ritual and repetition to create a kind of mantra seeking surrender to that state of meditation leading to enlightenment yet arguing with the idea of surrendering any attachments at all to this world we ve been given to learn and love a city garden cohabitated by ancient Romans and tattooed kids automobiles and hollyhock maurauding cats and the Buddha I should be satisfied with the household gods he mourns but is satisfied with nothing determined to fit the whole world into his poems lest the one essential thing slip by From The One God is Mysterious The king and his queen are feasting They recline sumptuously on long divans and are attended by naked servants They can have anything they want this much is clear and I believe they have been having sex with one another and with the servants Why wouldn t they Who among the servants would not be honored to help And it s Babylon after all and doesn t Babylon exist in your memory Isn t Babylon the clear rumbling of your heart at ease with its every craving not the way it is now fenced off with spiked wire and old pipes with signs telling the pedestrians to beware the litter the old cans rusting No this is my own memory of excess and extravagance of abandonment to the weight of everything that pulls me down to ruin those same ticks and voices that lift me up and fill me with breath Frank Gaspar s poems are agile and forceful their narratives clear and absorbing In them he is speaking to the reader but also to himself or perhaps to some hazy divinity or to the blue sky I felt in his voice no attempt to persuade me of anything I felt only the abiding imperative to get it right Which is of course what real writing is all about Mary Oliver Not for Mothers Only Catherine Wagner, Rebecca Wolff, 2007 The thousand experiences The thousand interruptions The fact that motherhood is never what we expected and overwhelmingly intense Alicia Ostriker The Pitch Tom Thompson, 2006 Urban experience drives the savvy energetic lyrics of Tom Thompson's impressive second collection Winners and Losers in a World of Wind and Dust Stephen H.
